Germans Report Violent Air Attack on Russian Capital

WASHINGTON, LONDON WATCH CRITICAL FAR EASTERN SITUATION

By the Associated Press

Far East dispatches said today Japan has made sweeping demands for concessions in southern French Indo-China, possible springboard for an attack on Britain's great naval base at Singapore, and that the French had yielded.

Simultaneously, a Reuters (British news agency) dispatch from Hanoi, the capital of France's Oriental colony, said it had been confirmed officially that the Japanese had demanded the use of facilities in southern Indo-China.

By "facilities" it was assumed the Japanese meant airfields and naval bases.

Conferences between French Admiral Jean Decoux, governor general of Indo-China, and Major General Raishiro Sumita, chief of the Japanese military mission, were said to be continuing at Hanoi, with the end not yet in sight.

Washington and London watched the critical situation with mounting anxiety.

Berlin, too, kept an eye on developments, which might affect United States aid to Britain and China, and the German radio declared:

"According to news available here, the Japanese government has learned that British aims are directed at French Indo-China.

"The Japanese government is determined to defend its interest with all the means at its disposal against such intentions. The French government is likewise believed to share this view."

In London, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden told parliament that the British government was keenly "aware of persistent reports to the effect that the Japanese government intend to take action to obtain naval and air bases in southern Indo-China."

Eden declared flatly that alleged British designs on either Indo-China or neighboring Thailand (Siam) were "entirely non-existent."

Japan already holds air bases in northern Indo-China and has troops garrisoned at Hanoi and at Haipong, chief northern seaport.

Widespread reports have indicated she would also demand footholds in Saigon, chief city of the south, and perhaps at Camranh Bay, naval base on the southeast coast of Indo-China.

Foreign military quarters in Shanghai, noting an ominous series of Japanese war preparations, declared that Japan was girding to invade Indo-China within a week.

EXPELLED AXIS DIPLOMATS ARE NOW IN LISBON

Lisbon, July 23—(AP)—The United States naval transport West Point docked in Lisbon harbor at 8:10 a. m. today but the expelled German and Italian diplomats aboard were informed they could not land until American consuls for whom they are being exchanged have crossed the Portuguese border.

Despite the early hour scores of people were on hand to watch the big ship nose her way up the Tagus river towards a berth near the American export line ships.

The West Point, formerly the America, left New York eight days ago with 500 passengers for her first trans-Atlantic trip. She will pick up American consular officials who have left Germany and Italy, on the return voyage.

As the West Point moved into the harbor, four special trains bringing United States diplomats from Germany, Italy and occupied territories were crossing Spain toward the Portuguese frontier.

POST-WAR AIMS ARE STATED BY SUMNER WELLES

Declaration Designed to Assure All Peoples of Fair Peace And Equal Economic Opportunities; Directed at Europe

STRIKES AT HITLER

Washington, July 23.—(AP)—A declaration by Sumner Welles, designed to assure all peoples of a fair peace and equal economic opportunities, gave the nation and the world today the most definite official statement yet made of the American government's post-war objectives.

In the capital the impression prevailed, moreover, that the declaration was directed even more at Nazi-conquered Europe than at this country and the general belief was that in this respect it constituted an attempt to stimulate popular resistance to German rule and drive a wedge between Adolf Hitler and the German people.

The American post-war aims were stated by Welles, acting secretary of state, last night in a speech at the laying of a cornerstone for a new wing of the Norwegian legation. But what he had to say about the future he prefaced with the grim assertion that "there can be no peace until the Hitler government of Germany has been finally and utterly destroyed."

Welles' immediate audience at the ceremonies included the Norwegian minister, Wilhelm Munthe de Morgenstierne, representative of the exiled government of King Haakon VII, now in London who said:

"We hope that the very fact of our expanding at this time, when Norway is being temporarily occupied and raped by foreign masters might symbolize to you, to the world, yes, to the aggressors themselves, that we defy them, that we are building for the future, that we have abundant faith in victory and freedom."

(London reported that extracts from Welles' speech were quoted in British broadcasts to the European continents, in about 25 different languages.)

At the outset of his talk Welles said the ideal for which "peoples of good will" should work in order to attain a permanent peace was the creation after the war of an association of nations powerful enough to guarantee disarmament and equal economic opportunities.

BERLIN MORNING PRESS ATTACKS U. S. PRESIDENT

Berlin, July 23—(AP)—Attacks on President Roosevelt pushed the German war off the front pages of the entire Berlin morning press today.

Although the luftwaffe in the past 24 hours carried modern technical warfare to Moscow, which had not heard the din of battle with a foreign foe since 1812, editors gave the whole of their front pages to a rejuvenated anti-Roosevelt campaign.

The president was charged with intriguing against Germany in Bolivia. DNB, the official German news agency, said he was trying to bring Bolivia into the status of "colonial dependence" on the United States.

Also under attack was his message to Congress, and the press branded as lies his remarks concerning German threats to the United States.

Without exception, morning newspapers also published on their front pages a picture of President Roosevelt with his sons James, Franklin and Elliott, at a Masonic lodge session.

According to Nazi tenets, being a Mason is almost a cardinal sin and the picture is supposed to be particularly damaging evidence, as the Voelkischer Beobachter said in a two-line banner headline, that "Roosevelt is the main tool of Jewish world Freemasonry."

(Freemasonry in parts of continental Europe years ago developed activities, including interference with politics, which led many governments to declare it a danger to the state and to suppress it within their jurisdictions. Freemasonry in the United States, as well as the

House-To-House Collection of Old Aluminum To Be Staged On Friday

Nine Trucks and More Than 75 Boy Scouts to Conduct Drive Under Direction of Fire Chief; Districts Announced

COOPERATION ASKED

Starting promptly at 4 p. m. on Friday, nine trucks and more than 75 Boy Scouts will start out from the municipal building here to make a house-to-house collection of discarded aluminum articles to provide Warren's share of scrap aluminum being donated for national defense production, it was announced today by Burgess R. W. Steber, who is in charge of the pick-up in the borough.

To Housewives

The following special notes to housewives of Warren were issued by the aluminum collection committee today:

1. Have your articles ready so collectors will not have to wait while you rummage the attic or excavate the cellar.
2. If you cannot be at home put your hardware on the front porch or other accessible place.
3. All who are missed will be re-visited on Saturday morning.

Under a plan worked out by Fire Chief Douglas G. Kropf, the borough has been divided into nine districts for this intensive portion of the campaign. To each district will be assigned one truck and several Boy Scouts.

The aluminum will be collected by the Boy Scouts and carried to central points in the district, where it will be deposited on the trucks. The trucks will then take the arti-

NEW FINANCIAL PROBLEMS FACE GOVERNOR JAMES

Mellon Securities Corporation Is Lone Bidder on State's Tax Anticipation Bonds; Fiscal Officers Await Decision

HIGHER RATE ASKED

Harrisburg, July 23.—(AP)—New financial problems confronted the governor today as the state sought to sell $135,000,000 in tax anticipation notes and began assuming control of 12 mental hospitals the legislature turned over to the commonwealth.

Only one bidder applied to purchase the notes, and the state's fiscal officers awaited Governor James' return today from the funeral of William S. Rial, liquor control board chairman, for a decision.

The interest rate was higher than that charged at the last sale of notes six months ago.

After a three-hour conference, Dr. Edward B. Logan, the governor's budget secretary; Arthur W. Howe, deputy auditor general; and Samuel Baugher, deputy state treasurer, decided to withhold award of the issues to the Mellon Securities Corporation, lone bidder, pending a study by the governor.

The Mellon corporation, representing 60 financial houses, offered bids on two issues, one of $45,324,857 for ten months, and the other for $90,778,300 for 21 months. The interest asked on the short term issue was .63 of one per cent, and the longer one at .99 of one per cent. The interest would amount to $1,103,157, or about $250,000 more than the notes floated a half-year ago, when the rate was .247 per cent.

Bankers at the conference said higher rates were needed today to bring a profit.

The legislature authorized the administration to issue $175,000,000 but Dr. Logan and the governor decided to keep back $40,000,000 for any emergency which

NURSES ARRIVE IN U. S. AFTER RESCUE AT SEA

Norfolk, Va., July 23—(AP)—Their ship torpedoed some 400 miles off the coast of Greenland while en route to Great Britain four American Red Cross nurses came home yesterday under the strong arm of the U. S. Navy with a vivid story of 12 days in an open boat in the north Atlantic.

Picked up July 5 by an American destroyer, they were taken first to a naval hospital at Reykjavik, Iceland, for treatment of gangrene of the feet and exposure before coming here in a Navy transport commanded by Capt. Clarence Gulbranson.

The four, who sailed June 5 from New Orleans aboard a 7,000-ton vessel were Marion Blissett of Detroit, Mich.; Victoria Pelc of Auburn, N. Y.; Rachel St. Pierre of Boston, and Lilian M. Pesnicak of Albany, N. Y.

Their rescue was announced

FIREARMS SALESMAN ACCEPTS NO ORDERS

Philadelphia, July 23—(AP)—A firearms salesman with nothing to sell was the saddest man at the 28th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Chiefs of Police Association.

"There's no use in my writing your order. We're so busy making guns for the United States and Great Britain, we couldn't fill it anyway."

STAHLNECKER QUITS AS BOARD CHAIRMAN

Harrisburg, July 23—(AP)—P. Stephen Stahlnecker resigned today as chairman of the unemployment compensation board of review at $9,000 a year, effective July 31.

Stahlnecker submitted his resignation to Governor James yesterday, explaining he intended to enter private employment in the city of Harrisburg.

He has been a familiar figure on Capitol hill and in state politics since he served as secretary to former Governor Gifford Pinchot a decade ago

PITTSBURGH WAITER DROWNED IN MISHAP

Washington, Pa., July 23.—(AP)—A 29-year-old Pittsburgh waiter, who couldn't swim, lost his life yesterday in the deep waters of Chambers dam near here, when a canoe in which he was riding with two Castle Shannon girls overturned.

Screams of Emily Rockacy, 22, and Geraldine Faust, 13, quickly brought a rowboat to the spot but it was two and one-half hours before the body of their companion, Rodger Scheuer, was recovered.

Miss Rockacy tried to tow Scheuer to the overturned canoe, she said, but he broke from her grasp and disappeared.

PREDICTS MILITARY ACTIVITY

Navy Secretary Knox Declares Recent Developments in Far East Indicate New Movement By Japanese; Ambassador to Confer With Acting Secretary of State Today

STRICT CENSORSHIP IS IMPOSED BY JAPS

Washington, July 23—(AP)—Secretary of Navy Frank Knox today said there was "no question" but that recent developments in the Far East, including the Japanese government's establishment of radio and cable censorship on information from that country, meant new military movements in the Far East.

Knox told his press conference: "I look for movement out there—and very soon."

He declined, however, to discuss the possible direction of such a move, saying that "no one can tell at this point whether it will go north or south."

The Navy Department yesterday informed President Roosevelt that the Japanese had established censorship and at his press conference President Roosevelt said he considered it significant, but referred questioners to the State Department when asked if he expected it to be the prelude to an aggressive action in the Orient.

Sumner Welles, acting secretary of state, arranged to receive the Japanese ambassador (at 3 p. m. EST) today amid increasing signs that the United States was preparing new notice to Japan on the threat of military moves in the Far East.

The navy secretary was asked whether the United States fleet was in position to do "whatever is necessary to carry out our policy in the far east."

Smiling, Knox said "yes," and declined to elaborate.

It was not disclosed whether Welles or the ambassador requested a meeting but all indications were that the envoy would be told plainly that American-Japanese relations would suffer a further strain from any military move into French Indo-China or elsewhere.

The Japanese ambassador, Kich-

Washington, July 23—(AP)—A provision to excuse certain classes of national guardsmen and reserves from further army service was proposed today by Senator Connally (D.-Tex.) as a compromise to meet some of the criticism of legislation to retain citizen soldiers in uniform beyond the present limit of one year.

Connally said he had discussed this proposal with Secretary of War Stimson, adding that if the War Department did not itself recommend changes he would offer

PUC SETS DATES FOR PITTSBURGH HEARING

Harrisburg, July 23—(AP)—The Public Utility Commission today fixed hearings at Pittsburgh for September 3, 4 and 5 on a plan of reorganization of Pittsburgh Railways Company and Pittsburgh Motor Coach Company, recently filed by the trustees.

The plan is the second to be submitted to the commission for approval. The first, filed on August 5, 1940, was rejected November 27, 1940, "as being neither fair nor in the public interest."

Property-Supplies Secretary Resigns

Harrisburg, July 23—(AP)—Roger W. Rowland, of New Castle, today submitted his resignation as secretary of properties and supplies in Governor James' cabinet, effective July 31, and the governor immediately accepted it with "deep regret."

Rowland, appointed to the secretary's post at the beginning of the James administration, told the governor in a letter that "the demands both directly and indirectly arising out of the defense program make it imperative that I give my undivided attention to my business." He is president of the New Castle Refractories Company.

No successor to Rowland has been chosen yet.

STATE COLLEGE GIVES TRAINING TO OVER 2,000

Engineering Defense Education Program Places Large Number of Pennsylvanians in Vital Industry Since January

WILL CARRY ON PLAN

State College, July 23—(AP)—More than 2,000 Pennsylvanians have been placed in defense industries or have obtained better jobs as a result of the engineering defense training program at the Pennsylvania State College since last January, officials said today.

"More men are being placed daily," said Dr. Joseph W. Bird, in charge of placement for the education plan, "and before July 31 we expect that another 1,000 will be working in defense industries in Pennsylvania and nearby states.

"Our survey shows unquestionably that any man willing to prepare himself for a special job today may obtain one," Dr. Bird said. "Business and industry are just as eager to get trained men as unemployed men are to get jobs."

According to data compiled by the college placement office, 50,000 vacancies exist at present in Pennsylvania industries, and the complete program of college is designed to train more than 20,000 workers for such jobs.

State College and other colleges and universities have undertaken training programs under the United States Office of Education to help relieve the shortage of trained defense workers by conducting an extensive evening class program. Penn State has trained 10,000 men and women in more than 50 cities and towns of the state.

The students attend classes at night and study mathematics, cost control, tool design, foreman training, inspection, testing, pre-foremanship, machine operation and other subjects. In some fields, notably time and motion study and machine operation, the supply of men is sufficient to meet the demand, according to Dr. Bird.

Most of the men who were formerly unemployed became heat treaters, layout inspectors, arsenal workers, plate makers, inspectors, and time and motion study men.

Among the employed, men who were principally clerks, chauf-

Reds Admit Casualties and Damage But Declare Assault a Failure; Hitler's Headquarters Declare Soviet Armies Falling Back Along Entire Front in 32-Day-Old Struggle

FIGHTING CONTINUES IN CENTRAL SECTORS

BULLETIN

London, July 23.—(AP)—A Reuters (British news agency) dispatch from Moscow said today it was learned on good authority that Smolensk, 230 miles west of Moscow, still was in Russian hands. The German High Command reported its fall last week.

By the Associated Press

German bombers left scores killed and wounded in Moscow today and reported that "vast flaming seas" engulfed the Soviet capital while on the fighting front Adolf Hitler's high command declared Russian troops were suffering "extraordinarily sanguinary losses" everywhere.

It was Moscow's second successive night raid.

The Russians, while admitting casualties, fires and bomb-wrecked homes, declared the Moscow assault was a failure. They also insisted that Soviet troops were still fighting in the same zones as yesterday.

Hitler's headquarters pictured the Red armies as falling back along the entire front in the 32-day-old struggle, suffering terrific losses in attempts to relieve encircled units.

SETTLEMENT IN MATCH INDUSTRY IS ANNOUNCED

Washington, Juuly 23—(AP)—Settlement of a wage dispute involving 4,000 workers in the match industry in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Washington was announced by the U. S. Cociliation Service.

The National Match Workers' Council, AFL, had voted to strike last Thursday, asking an increase of 10 cents an hour. Terms of the settlement were not announced, pending ratification of the agreement by the union membership.

Officials said the strike action was postponed when the conciliation service asked representatives of the union and the industry to meet here. Companies represented included Diamond Match, Ohio Match, Palmer Match, Wisconsin Match, Federal Match division of the Pan American Corporation and the Burst, Forster, Dixfield Company.

Pennsylvania Representative May Not Run Again If Muddle Continues

BY JOSEPH A. LOFTUS

Washington, July 23—(AP)—Representative Patrick J. Boland, Democrat, Scranton, Pa., the majority whip, may not seek another term in Congress unless the existing apportionment muddle in his state is cleared up.

Boland called the legislature's failure to redistrict the state "a disgrace," and remarked in an interview: "I can't see any good reason for being a candidate and running at large in the state of Pennsylvania."

The federal apportionment method allows Pennsylvania only 33 representatives under the 1940 census returns, instead of the present 34. All must be elected at large next year unless the state is redistricted. The legislature failed to agree on a method and adjourned last week.

Boland, serving his sixth term, said the existing situation "is a very decided detriment to the more sparsely populated sections which are now represented in Congress by men who know the needs of those localities. An election of 33 congressmen at large gives the big cities an undue advantage. In my judgment the ultimate outcome would be unfair representation in Congress. I can't see any good reason for being a candidate and running at large in the state of Pennsylvania."

Senator James J. Davis, Republican, Pittsburgh, disclosed he has asked the director of the bureau of the census for his opinion of the resolution introduced by Representative Samuel A. Weiss, Allegheny county Democrat, under which the census bureau would redistrict the state.

Davis' letter asked the director, "Is this practical and constitutional?"

Soldiers of 28th Division Urged To Enlist in Anti-Tank Battalion

BY F. L. FITZPATRICK

Indiantown Gap, July 23—(AP)—Soldiers of the 28th Division are urged to "be tank busters."

The newly formed anti-tank battalion which came into official being on July 10 is actively trying to interest division soldiers to transfer to the fast-moving, hard-hitting unit. An advertisement in the Pennsylvania Guardsman, weekly publication of the division, urges the "tank buster" battalion be brought up to its full war-time strength of 655 men before the troops leave for maneuvers in August.

The anti-tank unit expects to get 200 of the 615 infantry selectees scheduled to arrive from Fort Bragg, N. C., next Thursday morning. The unit also expects an additional 110 infantry selectees who arrived here last week from Camp Wheeler, Ga., to enroll.

The anti-tank battalion, commanded by Maj. Carl L. Peterson, Bradford, at present has a complement of 216 men and 26 officers. Present equipment of the unit consists of five "dummy" 37 millimeter guns and four 75 millimeter field pieces.

Details for operation are being worked out, and the battalion is bivouacked under canvas at the northwest corner of Muir Field, where they will remain until they leave for maneuvers at Bowling Green, Va., about August 2.

The balance of the 615 selectees expected from Fort Bragg Thursday, will be divided, according to present plans, as follows:

Ninety-three to the 107th Field Artillery, Pittsburgh; 234 to the 108th Field Artillery, Philadelphia, and 88 to the 109th Field Artillery, Wilkes-Barre

TWO ARRESTED FOR VIOLATION OF LIQUOR LAW

Sheffield, July 23—Sequel to the series of raids and arrests staged over the weekend in the county by state and federal liquor law enforcement agents and local police was the arrest here yesterday at their woods camp home in Four Mile of Joe White, 43, and his wife, Flora White, 38, on warrants charging them with illegal sale of liquor, illegal sae of malt beverages and with maintaining a disorderly house.

The arrests were made by local Police Chief Sanford Secor, who was accompanied by Private N. B. Johns of the state motor police. The violations with which White and his wife were charged all allegedly occurred when the couple, who only recently moved to the woods camp, were residing in a home on Barnes street, this community. The informations on the liquor law violations were filed by agents of the State Liquor Control Board and that on the disorderly house charge by Chief Secor.

Arraigned before local Justice Edwin Anderson, both White and his wife pleaded guilty to all three charges. Each posted bond in the amount of $800 for appearance at the next term of court.

without details by the navy July 9. Two others of the party were picked up and are now in a hospital at Londonderry, Ireland, but the Red Cross had no word of the other four.

Their exposure to the open sea during the nearly two weeks in which they subsisted on hardtack and meatballs doled out by the captain of the vessel, brought on the gangrene. Their condition has improved since then.

Two torpedoes struck the vessel which had dropped behind a convoy at 7:15 a. m. June 24, sending it to the bottom within eight minutes. The submarine then surfaced and the crew offered to take the women aboard. The answer was "no."

Rough rainy weather set in the third day as the captain turned his lifeboat toward Greenland.

"We celebrated the Fourth of July by sitting in the rain," the nurses told Gulbranson, and they caught water in empty meat cans as it dropped from a canvas. This water they used to brush their teeth.

Blue Barron at Library Theatre Friday

BLUE BARRON

Blue Barron's rise to fame as a nationally-known radio recording, movie and dance band maestro dates back to October, 1936, when the management of the Floating Palace, showboat at Tory, New York, engaged the orchestra for a tryout after having played some of the country's biggest name bands. He will appear at the Library Theatre for one day only, Friday, July 25th, afternoon and evening. In addition to his band, there will appear Russ Carlisle, vocalist, and Charlie Fischer, the tenor with the whimsical smile, plus Ronnie Snyder, steel guitarist. Don't miss this fine musical presentation at the Library Theatre for one day only, Friday, July 25th, afternoon and evening.

Post-War Aims Are Stated By Sumner Welles

son at the close of the World War the acting secretary said he did not believe that peoples of good will "will not once more strive to realize the great ideal of an association of nations through which the freedom, the happiness and the security of all peoples may be achieved."

He said that the League of Nations had failed to establish lasting peace "in part because of the blind selfishness of men here in the United States as well as in other parts of the world." United States membership was blocked by the Senate in 1920.

The failure must also be attributed, Welles said, to the fact that the league was forced by those who controlled it to operate "as a means of maintaining the status quo."

It was never able to function as President Wilson had intended it, he said, "as an elastic and impartial instrument in bringing about peaceful and equitable adjustments between nations as times and circumstances proved necessary."

Real disarmament can never be achieved, he said, "without some rigid form of international supervision" and no lasting peace ever will be established without providing fully and adequately for "the natural rights of all peoples to equal economic enjoyment."

If the Mellon bid is rejected, the state will be forced to readvertise and start all over again.

The $5,850,000 appropriated by the legislature to pay for the mental hospital operation will be exhausted in March, 1943, said James C. Smith, deputy secretary of welfare, today.

The department had asked $7,250,000, Smith said, adding that the transfer and operation until the end of the two-year fiscal period would require that much.

The present administration will end in January, 1943.

Amusements

BLUE BARRON AND HIS MUSIC OF YESTERDAY AND TODAY

On the Library Theatre Stage in Person One Day Only, Friday, July 25th, Afternoon and Evening

Blue Barron, youthful CRA orchestra leader, whose versatile orchestra has scored a terrific hit at the Green Room of Hotel Edison in New York City, with nightly broadcasts over the NBC network, comes to the Library Theatre for one day only, afternoon and evening, July 25th.

The success of the Blue Barron orchestra can be attributed to their splendid arrangements of dance music, their fine instrumental and vocal soloists and the ensemble singing of the band. Barron, who is a past master of the art of giving the public what they want, plays "danceable tempos" with a change of pace that registers with dancers both young and old.

With him are such as Russ Carlisle, Charlie Fischer and Ronnie Snyder, all appearing at the Library Theatre for one day only, Friday, July 25th, afternoon and evening. Don't miss this outstanding stage attraction of the season.

COP HELPS STORK

Philadelphia, July 23—(AP)—Patrolman John Conroy stepped out of his role as policeman and into one as midwife when Mr. and Mrs. John Loughery discovered they couldn't reach the hospital in time. A daughter was born to Mrs. Loughery in an automobile and "it's doing fine," thanks to Patrolman Conroy who attended the mother.

CANDIDATES IN PRIMARY START OPEN CAMPAIGN

Monday of this week having been the last day for filing of petitions by those desiring to be candidates for nomination in the primary election on September 9, the political campaign in the borough and county is getting underway in earnest and the next six weeks will be devoted to rallies and boosting of both parties' selections.

There will be but one candidate for burgess in Warren borough, Raymond W. Steber having announced that he will seek reelection on the Republican ticket.

Tracy M. Greenlund, who is filling an unexpired term as justice of the peace, is a candidate for election this fall and Harry C. Johnson is the Republican choice for the office of tax collector.

Terms of three members of the board of education expire this year and all will seek reelection. They are Robert W. Mackay, Melvin G. Keller and W. Floyd Clinger.

Candidates for other boroughs in the county and for minor offices throughout the county are to be announced within a short time.

Compromise On Extension of Draft Offered

an amendment of this nature.

He hoped to make it possible, the Texas senator told reporters, for national guardsmen and reserves with dependents or business obligations to leave the service, if they felt it was necessary to do so.

The amendment, he added, probably would have to be couched in broad language so that it would apply in all cases where it could be shown that additional service would work undue hardship. He pointed out that while it probably would cover selectees as well as guardsmen and reserves, it would affect them little because such problems were investigated by local boards before they were inducted. The general policy of draft boards has been to defer registrants with dependents.

Meanwhile, it appeared likely that the Senate military committee might approve for Senate consideration a resolution by Senator Thomas (D.-Utah) calling for a congressional declaration of an emergency under which citizen soldiers could be retained in the army's ranks indefinitely.

Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the Democratic leader, said the "trend" appeared to be in the direction of the Thomas resolution, rather than amendment of the Selective Service Act, as first proposed by the War Department.

GIANT PROBLEM

Lancaster, July 23—(AP)—St. Joseph's Hospital had a sizeable problem on its hands when eight-foot, six-inch Willie Camper showed up for treatment—He was too big for the beds. Attendants made Willie comfortable by placing a table at the end of the longest bed. The patient, 18-year-old trouper with a carnival playing here, was treated for a sore leg.

VFW INVITES PRESIDENT

Philadelphia, July 23—(AP)—Officials of the Veterans of Foreign Wars announced they had invited President Roosevelt to speak at their national convention here August 24-29. Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox and Brigadier General Lewis B. Hershey, director of Selective Service, will be on the program, it was announced.

COMMUNITY EXPECTED TO DONATE ABOUT 2,000 POUNDS OF SCRAP ALUMINUM DURING THE CAMPAIGN

The local aluminum collection committee announced today that this community, to contribute its full share toward the national goal of 20,000,000 pounds of scrap aluminum, should donate at least 2,000 pounds in next week's pick-up campaign.

"It is estimated that an average of about 3-4 pound of aluminum will have to be collected from each family to achieve the national goal," said Allan Gibson, local aluminum chairman. "This figure takes into account that only about 75 per cent of the aluminum donated will be usable in national defense production. The balace will be unsuitable and will be removed in the smelting process."

To give local housewives and business places an added incentive to donate every possible aluminum item that they can spare without making replacements, it was revealed that the mayor of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., has issued a challenge to all cities and communities that Mt. Vernon will achieve the highest per family or per capita collection in the United States.

The local committee emphasized that this is the first campaign in which all citizens have been asked to take an active part for national defense production since President Roosevelt's declaration of a full emergency on May 27.

"Only by 100 per cent cooperation of all our citizens can we insure this city's showing in the campaign," said the local chairman. The aluminum pickup here will be Friday and Saturday and all persons are being asked to get their aluminum ready now so that none will be overlooked.

Of course, you do not have to wait for some person to pick up your scrap aluminum donations. Perhaps you would enjoy more taking it to the bin at the north approach of the Hickory street bridge and toss them upon the heap yourself, as many persons have already done.

The chairman also calls attention to the "Aluminum show" to be staged at the Library Theatre Saturday morning at ten o'clock, when every person from six to sixty will be admitted by presenting a piece of aluminum. Any old pot, pan or piece of aluminum scrap will admit the patron to the playhouse for this particular performance.

It is anticipated that quite a large truck load of aluminum utensils will be secured from this unique entertainment.

TIMES TOPICS

IMPORTANT BROADCAST

He did so well in his first broadcast last week after returning from the Balkan and African war zones that Robert St. John, Associated Press correspondent, is going back on the air tonight. His time will be 6:45 o'clock on NBC-Blue.

MAJOR BOWES BETTER

Major Bowes, recovering from an operation several weeks ago, has left the hospital to recuperate further at his home in Rumson, N. J. No date has been set for the resumption of his CBS program activities, but it is expected it will be at least two weeks and probably longer.

MEETING AT CEMETERY

The meeting of the Maultby Cemetery Association to be held next Sunday morning at ten o'clock will take place at the cemetery instead of at the church, as was stated in yesterday's issue of the Times-Mirror. All persons interested are asked to be present at that hour.

COMMITTEE NAMED

The committee of men named by the administration board of St. Paul's Lutheran church to make plans for observance of the 70th anniversary this fall is busy with details, announcing that the celebration will be held in October, although definite dates have not been established. On this committee are Robert Swanson, Harold Nelson, Richard Osterman, Hilmar Roos and Sam Davis.

IS LT. COMMANDER

Of much interest to the many local friends of Winthrop Slocum, formerly a district manager for the Bell Telephone Company here, is a picture of "Win" in his uniform as lieutenant commander of the United States Navy which appears in the current issue of The Telephone News, house organ of the utility. Mr. Slocum is at present, according to The News, inspecting naval materials at Pittsburgh, where he was transferred from Warren.

V. F. W. BAND TO GIVE PROGRAM THIS EVENING

The first summer concert of the season by the Veteran's of Foreign Wars band of Warren will be given this evening, in front of Warren's municipal building, corner of Third and Hickory streets. The concert will start at 7:30, and will be entirely free to the public.

Under the direction of Leidy Williams, the band has planned an attractive program to open the summer schedule of free entertainment which the band has offered for several years past. Feature number will be in three parts from the suite, Atlantis, by Safranek. This suite is descriptive of the mythical lost continent of that name and the parts to be performed describe the dawning and the morning hymn of praise, a function in the court of Atlantis, and a love duet between two citizens of the country.

The band also will play the well-known Dance of the Serpents by Boccalari, and an overture, Princess of India, by K. L. King, among other numbers. The program likewise will include a generous portion of marches.

The public is cordially invited to attend. Chairs are being provided, and there is also parking space available for early comers to listen from their cars.

Class One railroads in the United States had 1,080,000 employes in mid-April of this year.

DRIVE FOR OLD ALUMINUM OPENS AT YOUNGSVILLE

Youngsville, July 22—The borough truck and Youngsville Boy Scouts were out Monday gathering scrap aluminum about town. A bin to hold the pieces of alminum has been constructed in front of the post office on the pavement.

GOOD ATTENDANCE

There was a large attendance Friday evening at the Townsend meeting held in the American Legion Home. Guests were present from Jamestown, Warren, Busti, Sugar Grove, Starbrick, as well as Youngsville and vicinity.

Mrs. Glen Sitler, Mrs. Ruth Devore and Mrs. Clara Welch, the three delegates from Youngsville at the recent national convention in Buffalo, gave interesting reports of the convention and read a review of the Wheeler-Pepper debate. Luncheon and social time followed the program.

CHURCH PICNIC

The Methodist Sunday school picnic is being held Wednesday at Canadohta Lake. Cars are to leave the church at 1:30 p. m. Those who have cars for transportation are asked to phone M. H. Sellin, who is supervising the transportation. Those attending are asked to bring rolls or sandwiches, table service and a tureen.

U. B. NOTES

A large group of the U. B. missionary group enjoyed the Friday missionary program at Findley Lake.

Thursday evening of this week the local U. B. Men's Brotherhood are attending a banquet at Findley Lake and their wives are planning a picnic at the lake the same evening.

Regular morning and evening services will resume next Sunday, July 27th, in the U. B. church.

"LEST WE FORGET"

(Contributed)

Upholding the high standards set by this community for every national effort, Warren is now engaged in raising its quota for the United Service Organizations for national defense (commonly called the (U. S. O.)

Unlike the separate organizations in 1917-18, this is a coordinated group including the Young Men's Christian Association; the National Catholic Community Service; the Salvation Army; the Young Women's Christian Association; the Jewish Welfare Board; and the National Travelers Aid Association.

The Government cannot finance these organizations which supply the necessary services, because they are private organizations, and must remain so to make their work effective. Theirs is a spiritual as well as a social task; to maintain friendly and wholesome contacts between persons in civilian and military life, to conduct religious services, to furnish counsel and guidance on personal problems, to provide educational, cultural, clubhouse, and information services, and to keep up the morale of thousands of young men living away from home,—many of them for the first time.

Setting forth the needs of the U. S. O. in an address to a New York audience, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., a most outstanding generous contributor of his great wealth to the welfare of mankind, spoke to "fellow parents and neighbors" as a father with a son "in the defense forces of the country". His own son entered the army as a "buck private". In this address, Mr. Rockefeller stated as his "Credo" a few principles of thoughtful living which can well be adapted to the thinking of every person in Warren, as he is asked to do his part in our local effort for the U. S. O.—and as the nation's defense preparations incline us all to ponder seriously our total effectiveness in the world's crisis.

We were so impressed with the words that we reprint them in full as:

"I believe in the supreme worth of the individual and in his right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

"I believe that every right implies a responsibility; every opportunity, an obligation; every possession, a duty.

"I believe that the law was made for man and not man for the law; that government is the servant of the people and not their master.

"I believe in the dignity of labor, whether with head or hand; that the world owes no man a living, but that it owes every man an opportunity to make a living.

"I believe that thrift is essential to well-ordered living and that economy is a prime requisite of a sound financial structure, whether in government, business or personal affairs.

"I believe that truth and justice are fundamental to an enduring social order.

"I believe in the sacredness of a promise, that a man's word should be as good as his bond; that character—not wealth or power or position—is of supreme worth.

"I believe that the rendering of useful service is the common duty of mankind and that only in the purifying fire of sacrifice is the dross of selfishness consumed and the greatness of the human soul set free.

"I believe in an all-wise and all-loving God, named by whatever name, and that the individual's highest fulfillment, greatest happiness and widest usefulness are to be found in living in harmony with His will.

"I believe that love is the greatest thing in the world; that it alone can overcome hate; that right can and will triumph over might."

When Kipling wrote his well-known poem "Recessional" and said in part "If, drunk with sight of power we loose wild tongues that have not Thee in awe",—he never knew that one of our country's richest men would one day say that "these principles which I learned, many of them at my mother's knee—point the way to happiness in life, to courage and peace in death. If they mean to you what they mean to me, they may perhaps be helpful also to our sons for their guidance and inspiration."

These Are Helping the V Campaign, Too

• EDSON'S WASHINGTON COLUMN

BY PETER EDSON
Times-Mirror Washington Correspondent

Washington, July 23—One of the most important angles of President Roosevelt's announcement of the Latin American trade blacklist, generally overlooked in the hullabaloo over its sweeping, restrictive and negative provisions, is freeing hemisphere trade by relaxing the controls previously existing on U. S. commerce with Central and South American republics.

It is an intricate and a long story, and many details of its administration have not yet been clarified in Washington. In general, however, by listing specifically the 1800 blocked nationals with whom U. S. firms can no longer do business, the way is cleared for U. S. exporters and importers to trade with all other firms, numbering many times more than the firms now on the blacklist.

Heretofore, there has been considerable confusion about what Latin American firms U. S. Nationals could trade with. There was, for instance, the general teasury order freezing trade with all countries of continental Europe and their nationals all over the world. The order was aimed primarily at Germans and Italians, but it applied also to Spaniards and Portuguese nationals, even though they were doing business in the Argentine or Brazil. What American exporters were up against was an intricate job of research, determining whether their agents in Latin America had any Spanish or Portuguese or Italian or German blood in them. If so, trade with them was not permitted except under special license.

The new blacklist simplifies that rigamarole tremendously and it lifts a lot of bothersome restrictions which had been interfering with the much-desired wartime expansion of inter-American trade. Trade with Latin America is now entirely unrestricted except for the 1800 firms on the blacklist and for those few essential defense items on which there is U. S. export control. It no longer makes any difference whether a firm in Latin America is controlled by Spaniards or Portuguese—or even Dutchmen or Frenchmen. If their names are not on the blacklist, it's okay to go ahead and do business with them.

To legalize this trade, Treasury has issued a general license permitting all such transactions without the previously required specific license. This license applies to everything except purely financial transactions, such as transfer of funds. The purpose of this remaining restriction is to keep a check on foreign exchange transactions and prevent a leak of foreign nationals' assets back to Europe.

Under certain conditions, trade may even be permitted with firms on the blacklist, but only under temporary license. Transactions not yet completed, contracts which have only a short time to run, and emergency transactions may be given license for limited operations. In general, the lid is to be kept on tight and trade prohibited with any firm on the list, though the list itself can be changed by additions or removals.

To show how the new blacklist regulations operate, take the example of a firm which has for many years been selling its goods to South America through a German company now on the blacklist. Finding that it can no longer do

New Caledonia Gains Strategic Importance

UNTIL German panzer units smashed France last year, New Caledonia was merely a French island, 700 miles off the northeast coast of Australia, 248 miles long by 30 miles wide, populated by some 60,000 people, mostly Negroes.

But the fall of France gave New Caledonia a strategic importance. It is rich in vital war minerals—nickel, chrome and iron. Japan is eyeing the island, well aware of its proximity to Australia—only five hours flying time.

There have been reports of Japanese military and commercial infiltration. New Caledonia would make a splendid naval base and with Vichy apparently controlled by the axis, anything can happen.

This stamp, one of the series in 1928, shows a landscape scene in the island. There are mountain ranges encircling the capital of Noumea. Here hibiscus, crotons, poincianas, lantanas and guava bushes grow in abundance.

Noumea is also the site of the nickel works of New Caledonia.

The citizens are anti-Petain, pro-De Gaulle. They wanted to send an expeditionary force of 500 to fight the Germans in France, but the British command prevailed upon them to keep the men at home for island defense.

Way to Relieve Itchy Pimples

When your skin is irritated with pimples, red blotches and other skin blemishes from external causes, and you're crazy with itching torture, here's quick relief. Get a 35c box of Peterson's Ointment at your druggist and apply this delightful soothing balm. Itching stops promptly. Smarting disappears. Your skin looks better, feels better. Also wonderful for itching of feet, cracks between toes. Try it. (adv.)

CRANIUM CRACKERS

AUTOMOTIVE QUIZ

Few drivers know much about the automobile except that you turn a key, step on the starter, shift the gears and turn the steering wheel to make it go. Get under the hood to see if you can spark on the answers to these questions.

1. Who was the first man to invent a gasoline automobile in the U. S., and when?
2. What is the difference between a jaywalker and a pedestrian?
3. How does the spark plug operate to ignite the gasoline in a cylinder?
4. What is the purpose of the fan belt?
5. What is meant when it is said that cylinders or brake drums are "scored"?

Answers on Page Six

It has been demonstrated that 35 hours' training in a light plane results in rejection by the Army Air Corps schools of only 17 of every 100 candidate pilots.

A Washington Daybook

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — Stories about "trailer towns" have been popping up for years, but the Farm Security Administration has ticked off the greatest story of them all. It's connected with national defense.

Let's go back to the days of the "Okies," when FSA was under the guns and trying to provide "temporary shelter" for the migrant workers flowing back and forth across the land. The trailer offered a quick solution and, in a comparatively small way, it was put to use.

The problem had hardly been gotten in hand when along came national defense. Boom towns appeared overnight. There was no chance to provide adequate housing. Congress, in desperation, appropriated $300,000,000 for defense housing. Some of the problems could be solved by so-called "low cost housing projects," developed over a period of months.

But one problem was a stumper—the "stop-gap housing," or temporary shelter—which would take care of a rapid influx of workers in communities totally unprepared to house even a 10 per cent increase in population—much less the two, three or four hundred per cent increases that did result in some communities.

All Output Absorbed

THE government turned to the only agency that had had any experience in this problem and FSA went all out for "mobile housing."

This "mobile housing" has resulted in a phase of living which may hang on for many years. In an even dozen defense areas, FSA now has 3,194 trailers, housing from two to five persons, at rentals of from $6 to $6.50 a week. Not only is the total output of the trailer industry completely absorbed now, but, according to estimates here, the output for the next six months is wholly contracted.

At the moment, there are camps of 200 or more trailers at Baltimore; Erie, Pa.; Ravenna, Ohio; Burlington, Iowa; Kingsbury-LaPorte, Ind.; Jacksonville, and Wilmington, N. C.; Nashville, Tenn.; and San Diego; and smaller camps at Paso Robles and Benicia, Calif.; and Bethlehem, Pa.

Built in units around service buildings, these trailer camps closely resemble the trailer towns that follow the seasonal migrations along the two coasts. There is, however, one important difference. National defense trailers do not have to be always on the go. They might settle down in a community for a year or so until their wheels are hub deep in the soil.

Have To Be Costly

THIS is a vital difference and behind it lies the story of why the trailer industry, booming five or six years ago, was caught short when the government went into the trailer market. Safe trailers cost money—big money. If they are going to be yanked all over the land from border to border, they have to be on sturdy frames. If they are going to be occupied in winter and summer, they have to be built like permanent homes. Such trailers—luxury homes, in a sense—never could be built to supply only migratory workers' incomes. Thus, the recession of 1937 played hobb with the trailer industry and when the government went into the market with a wholesale demand, it found a very low supply.

Under the impetus of government demand, the trailer business is booming again, but whether it will last is another problem. "Stop gap" housing is just what the name implies and it doesn't last forever. Better methods catch up with it and make it obsolete.

Day after tomorrow, with low-cost, prefabricated housing supplanting the stop-gaps, the story of trailer towns of from 1,000 to 2,000 persons may be merely something with which bearded grandpas will bore or delight the children.

BY WILLIAM E. McKENNEY
America's Card Authority

A correspondent who wishes his name withheld sends me today's hand, which he witnessed in a rubber game at a social club. Here is a once-in-a lifetime hand with a vengeance!

The bidding proceeded normally until South got the notion of trying for slam. He thought he might be misunderstood if he made a conventional bid of four no trump, to start slam bidding, since the partners had already agreed on no trump as the proper contract.

So he tried a kind of asking bid in spades, expecting that at worst his partner would go back to four no trump and the spade bid might then operate to discourage what looked from his hand like the most dangerous opening lead.

But North passed and East could not resist doubling. South, still trusting his partner, passed to leave the decision to North. North evidently not understanding the situation passed, and there was South playing four spades with only three small spades in each hand.

But the pattern of split hands, 4-3-3-3, all around the table came to his rescue. He was able to cash three tricks in each side suit, without having any round ruffed.

Dummy was left in the lead to play the fourth diamond, and now East could not prevent the jack of spades from making for the tenth trick. Of course East blamed his partner for not opening a trump. But how could West guess the fantastic situation?

The correct method of sewing on buttons was the feature of the meeting of the Glade Sunbonnet Girls held July 21 at the home of Delores Nuhfer. Mrs. Thelma Prendergast, home economics supervisor, was present to discuss transportation to State College and dormitory regulations. Drill uniforms and skirt materials were also discussed. It was announced that a drill practice will be held at nine o'clock Friday morning at the Y. M. C. A. A former report of a contribution from Warren firemen was revised and credit given the Glade Farm Women's Society.

WARREN NATIVE IS ASSIGNED TO KGEI ON COAST

A special news dispatch from Schenectady, N. Y., reports that Merrill Cochran Phillips, for two years associated with the General Electric Company broadcasting in that city, will be transferred August 1 to the Pacific Coast, where he will be assistant manager of KGEI, the company's international short-wave radio station in San Francisco.

Mr. Phillips is the grandson of Mrs. J. B. Cochran, of Fifth avenue, and nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Ostergard, 105 Roy street.

Appointment of Mr. Phillips, announced by R. S. Peare, G-E manager of broadcasting, is in line with a general increase in the personnel of KGEI to handle the heavy work resulting from a recent increase of the station's power from 20 to 50 kilowatts. In his new position he also will be assistant to E. T. B. Harris, manager of KGEI.

Mr. Phillips, native of Warren and a graduate of Colgate University and the National Institute of Public Affairs in Washington, D. C., has worked with G. Emerson Markham on the WGY Farm Paper of the Air, the WGY Farm Forum and the G-E Science Forum. In addition to writing continuity for these programs, he has assisted Mr. Markham in the scheduling of speakers and in acting as master of ceremonies on the farm and science broadcasts.

The English language short-wave version of the Science Forum over WGEO and WGEA, the company's short-wave stations, has been handled entirely by Mr. Phillips since his affiliation with General Electric, and his "Consumer Information" program has been heard weekly over WGY for more than a year. Mr. Phillips has also done considerable dramatic work over the air on WGEO and WGEA, as well as on W2XOY and W2XB, G-E frequency modulation and television stations respectively.

KGEI, which opened in 1939 on "Treasure Island" during the Golden Gate International Exposition, recently transferred its studios to the Fairmount Hotel in San Francisco. The new 50,000-watt transmitters are housed in a new building constructed for that purpose in Belmont, Calif.

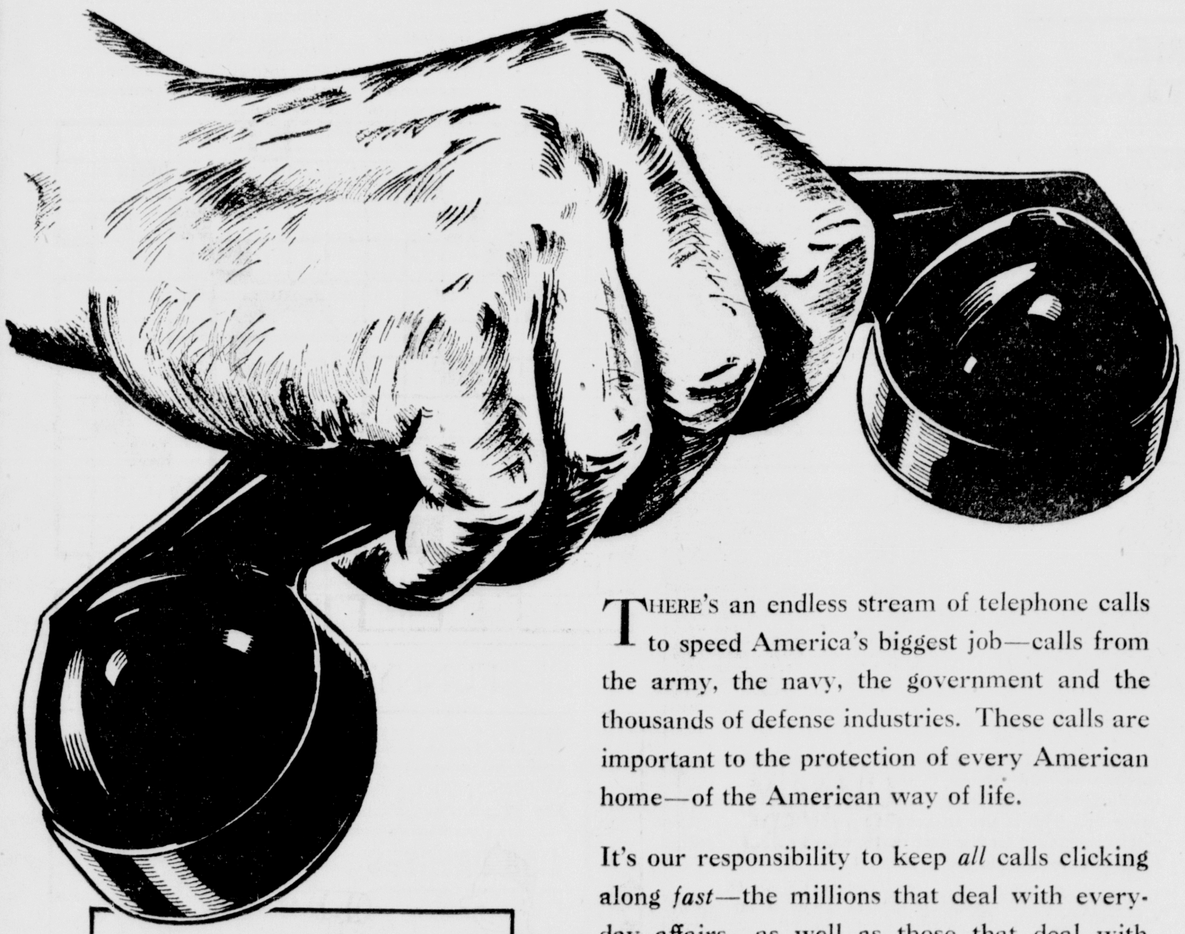
SPEEDING THE SERVICE THAT SPEEDS DEFENSE



THERE'S an endless stream of telephone calls to speed America's biggest job—calls from the army, the navy, the government and the thousands of defense industries. These calls are important to the protection of every American home—of the American way of life.

It's our responsibility to keep all calls clicking along fast—the millions that deal with everyday affairs—as well as those that deal with national defense.

Your cooperation will speed the service that speeds defense. We list a few things you can do—things which will mean better service all around. Suppose they save on the average only a second on each call. Today we're handling 6,800,000 calls a day in Pennsylvania. That would mean 6,800,000 seconds—or almost 19,000 hours of telephone time saved each day!

1. Don't trust to memory or to old lists for telephone numbers. It's best to look in the directory and make sure.

2. Answer the telephone promptly.

3. When you make a call, give the called party enough time to answer before you "hang up."

4. Try to avoid unnecessarily long conversations, especially if you are on a party line.

5. Be sure to hang up the instrument after every call. Failure to do so means your line is "busy"—though it may be doing nothing!

Thank you!

American Legion Auxiliary Enjoys Outdoor Dinner, Followed by Important Business Meet

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary enjoyed a delightful tureen dinner on the lawn at the Legion Home last evening in conjunction with the only July business session. A lovely crystal bowl of gladioli and asters centered the table.

During a brief executive meeting which followed, the women voted to completely redecorate and furnish a small reception room on the first floor at the home.

The regular business session followed, with discussion of several important items. It was announced that there will be but one meeting in August, also details to be made known later. It was voted to make a contribution to the United Service Odganizations Fund and to purchase material for making of caps and capes for the Junior Auxiliary.

A letter of grateful acknowledgement was read from Miss Julia Heibel, superintendent of the Hoffman Home, in regard to the American flag given by the auxiliary to the children's home on July 3 and dedicated with proper ceremonies on Independence Day.

Mrs. Elmer Munksgard, chairman of juniors, reported on her trip to the Keystone Girls' Camp at Grier School in Birmingham, Pa., where the auxiliary is sponsoring two local juniors. The girls, Miss Dorothy Munksgard, president, and Miss Patsy Chester, will return today from the camp, where 120 girls from all over the state have been assembled for a two-week period.

The coming state convention at Altoona, on August 14, 15 and 16, were discussed and the following signified their intention of attending sessions: Mrs. Larry Krespan, president; Mrs. Fred Siggins, assistant secretary; Mrs. Melvin Johnon, treasurer; Mrs. Elmer Munksgard, junior chairman; Mrs. C. D. Cannon, president-elect; Mrs. John Mead, who served as a World War nurse. There may be others from here attending, also.

Final Special Event At the Conservatory

The final special recital of the season was given at the Warren Conservatory of Music concert hall last evening, when Mrs. Alfred J. Mooney presented Jeanne Clark and Barbara Thompson, pianists.

They were assisted in their joint recital by Joyce Ramsdell, soprano, who is a pupil of Eugene Kuester in the voice department.

The young instrumentalists showed splendid technique and a grasp of musical values which promises well for their future progress. Their portion of the program was brought to a very pleasing conclusion with a two-piano selection, "At Evening," by N. Louise Wright.

Miss Ramsdell displayed a lovely lyric voice of fine texture, which she used to excellent advantage in a group of attractive songs by Ronald, Arnaud and Friml. Edith Haines Kuester was at the piano for artistic accompaniment of the vocalist.

New York Takes Eight Game Lead With Win Over Tribe

Donald Tosses Win For Bombers; Cards Tied With Flatbush

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sometimes in baseball a pitcher gets the "number" of a rival club—and the one Atley Donald of the New York Yankees has on the Cleveland Indians has proved immensely important.

Donald is a 28-year-old southern boy who never is mentioned in the same breath with the better pitchers of the American league although in 1939 he set a major league record for rookies by winning 12 consecutive games. A sore arm stopped him and he has been a so-so pitcher ever since against everybody, that is, but the Indians.

He has won five contests this year, three of them over Cleveland. Two of the three were against Bob Feller, the league's ace hurler.

Yesterday Donald led the Yanks to a 4-3 decision that turned the pennant race into a virtual runaway, giving the Yanks their 35th victory in 41 tilts and an eight-game grip on first place.

The sturdy righthander held the Indians to six hits. The score couldn't have been close except for Clarence (Soup) Campbell, a Cleveland rookie, who hit a double and a home run.

Feller, trying for his 20th victory before 45,000 fans, held the Yanks to seven hits. But six of these were bunched in the first four frames and were interspersed with walks. The blows included a home run by Joe Gordon and timely doubles by Charley Keller and Joe DiMaggio, who now has hit in 56 straight encounters since his 56-game streak was snapped.

While the Yanks were blowing the lid off the American League competition, leaders in the National League managed to tie themselves into another knot.

The Brooklyn Dodgers carried a 5-0 lead into the ninth inning and then lost a 5-4 decision to the Cincinnati Reds in a big rally centered around Chuck Aleno's pinch-triple with the bases loaded. Ricky Walters, who had held the Dodgers to eight hits, drove in the deciding run with a fly to center.

It was the fifth defeat in six contests for the skidding Dodgers and when the St. Louis Cardinals downed the New York Giants, 7-6, the National League lead reverted to the tie between Brooklyn and St. Louis.

The Cards crowded six runs in one rollicking inning, the fourth, to beat the Giants. Enos Slaughter hit a home run. Estel Crabtree singled with the bases loaded and Johnny Hopp tripled with two on. The defeat also dropped the Giants out of third place and let in Cincinnati.

All of the games yesterday were won by the home teams, five of them by one run.

Pittsburgh beat the Phillies, 4-3, in a tilt in which both starting pitchers lasted only one inning and in which all the scoring was completed by the third.

The Chicago Cubs crushed the Boston Braves, 13-2, with a 16-hit bombardment. Bill Nicholson drove in three runs with his 18th home run and a double and Dom DiMaggio batted in four with a double and two singles. By the ninth inning Manager Jim Wilson took out his pitcher, Bill Lee, just to let him rest. He had been on base four times.

The Boston Red Sox licked the Chicago White Sox, 6-2, with Hebert (Dick) Newsome outpitching Johnny Rigney for his 11th victory. Among Boston's seven hits were homers by Ted Williams, Jim Tabor and Jim Foxx. Newsome allowed six hits.

The Philadelphia Athletics easily whipped the St. Louis Browns, 11-1, with Jack Knott pitching five-hit ball.

The Washington Senators stopped the Detroit Tigers, 5-4, on the steady eight-hit hurling of Sid Hudson.

More airplanes for civilian use were produced in the United States in 1940 than 1932, 1933, 1934 and 1935. Approximately 6870 civil planes were built last year, an all time record for any single country for one year.

BOYS' CLUB IN WIN OVER ELKS BY 11-3 SCORE

In one of the finest pitching exhibitions that has been part of the City League softball program this year, fifteen-year-old Vito Greto last night scored a triumph for the St. Joseph's Boys Club over the Elks by a score of 11 to 3.

The youngster was slightly nervous for the first few innings and he allowed a dozen walks, but the opposition couldn't hit him. The first two Elks' runs were a result of Greto's loading the bases by giving batters free tickets and then passing a fourth man to force a run home.

However, the amazing feat last night was the fact that Greto tossed six innings of ball without giving up a single hit, and then the Elks hit twice in the seventh and once in both the eighth and ninth cantos.

Earl Dorrance started on the rubber for the Elks last night, but three home runs in the first inning, the first one combining with two errors for three runs, got him off to a bad start. Manager "Jiggs" Bonavita, of the Boys' Club, teed off first in the initial stanza, and then "Honey" Font and Bob Miller, who followed Jiggs in that order at bat, both punched the pill for a round trip.

Harry Christensen tossed for the Elks from the fifth inning on, and silenced the winners' bats to only five hits and two runs.

Tonight the Elks meet the K. of C. in another important game. If the Caseys win they'll be tied for the league lead in the second half title chase; if the Elks win they'll be back in the running, at least, for the championship.

Last Night's Bouts

By the Associated Press

New York—Melio Bettina, 186½, Beacon, N. Y., outpointed Clarence (Red) Burman, 189½, Baltimore (10); Pat Comiskey, 214, Paterson, N. J. defeated Henry Cooper, 191½, Brooklyn N. Y (10); Lee Savold, 188½, Des Moines, Iowa, outpointed Solly Krieger, 180, Brooklyn, N. Y. (10).

New York—Jommy Garrison, 141½, Hollywood, Calif., scored technical K. O. over Georgie Martin, 144½, Boston (3).

It Could Happen Only in Brooklyn

Pint-sized elderly fan gives George Barr piece of his mind as umpire orders him off Ebbets Field diamond. Customer leaped over the box rail to grab Plate Umpire Lou Jorda's coat after Manager Frank Frisch and Bob Elliott of the Pirates were ejected for complaining about a called strike. Cops escorted the interloper to the nearest exit. He no doubt is a Pittsburgh rooter who contracted fever in Brooklyn.

Sports Round-up

BY EDDIE BRIETZ

New York, July 23—National Open Champ Craig Wood goes back today to the old home town, Lake Placid, N. Y., to team up with his brother, Scott, in an exhibition golf match. . . . They say Craig has cleaned up about five grand since the doings last month at Fort Worth. . . . From this distance it looks like Turkey Thompson over Bob Pastor tonight at Los Angeles and Tony Zale to teach Ossie Harris a lesson at Chicago. . . . Aluminum collectors calling at Ebbets Field Monday were referred to the umpires' dressing room by Frankie Frisch. . . . Jimmy McLarnin is about to desert Hollywood and build a home at Oakland. . . . New York fight managers are warring among themselves over Anton Christoforidis, whose contract with Lew Burston expires next month and probably will not be renewed.

Remember the Name

From a soft (we hope) spot way out there at the end of the limb, our old pal, Charlie Johnson of the Minneapolis Star-Journal, broadcasts—"Bruce Smith (Minnesota back) undoubtedly will be the best individual gridiron performer of the entire country this year."

The Bad Humor Man

Southern Association sports scribes are blasting Ray Blades, New Orleans manager, for acting up when they go to the dressing room to get the lineups before the game. One Atlanta scribe was tossed out on his ear. . . . Judge Landis, who can't see a thing without his specs, found himself in a picklement at the American Association all-star dinner. There he was with a plate full of fried chicken, et cect, and unable to feed himself because he had left his glasses in his room. The judge borrowed a pair from Burt Shotton, Columbus manager, and pitched in. . . . Mike Jacobs couldn't get a $10,000 offer for the Joe Louis-Buddy Baer fight films, but they have made $100,000. Conn-Louis pictures will gross around $300,000. . . Will Gahagan, veteran trotting horse official, is well on the road to recovery in a Toledo hospital, but he'll have to miss the Hambletonian for the first time in the race's history.

Odditorium

By a strange quirk of circumstance Jake Atz, Sr., and Jake Atz, Jr., both manage ball clubs called the "twins". . . . Jake, Jr., is at Texarkana in the Cotton States loop and his pop is at Winston-Salem in the Piedmont. . . . P. S.: Both clubs are in seventh place.

Today's Guest Star

C. M. Gibbs, Baltimore Sun: "Chet Kehn and Ed Head, the Montreal pitchers are tied with 13 wins apiece, but Ed is still a Head." (Hurry with that hypo, Watson.)

He Should Worry

It was a break when Catcher Millies
Was let out by the hapless Phillies.

Missing Persons Dept.

Rudolph Hess now pitches for the Bronx (NY) semi-pro Giants.

Reports compiled by the Civil Aeronautics Administration show that persons participating in civilian aviation have increased more than double over previous years.

ZALE TO FIGHT

Chicago, July 23.—(AP)—Tony Zale, recognized as the middleweight champion by the National Boxing Association, will return to the ring wars tonight in a 10-round non-title fight with Ossie Harris, Pittsburgh Negro.

Zale scored a second-round knockout of former Champion Al Hostak of Seattle his last time out.

Yesterday's Stars

By the Associated Press

Atley Donald, Yankees—Held Indians to six hits in winning pitching duel from Bob Feller.

Bill Nicholson, Cubs—Drove in three runs with 18th homer and double against Braves.

Jack Knott, Athletics—Stopped Browns with five-hit hurling.

Estel Crabtree, Cardinals—Singled with bases loaded at height of six-run rally that beat Giants.

Bob Klinger, Pirates—Held Phillies to six hits in eight innings to get credit for victory.

MINOR LEAGUES

BETTINA BEATS BURMAN IN TEN ROUND BATTLE

By SID FEDER

Brooklyn, July 23.—(AP)—The southpaw style of Melio Bettina was too puzzling for Red Burman to solve last night and the former light heavyweight champion punched out a ten-round decision over the Baltimore redhead before a crowd of 10,167 in Ebbets Field. Bettina weighed 186 1-4; Burman, 189 1-2.

In this home ball park of the Brooklyn Dodgers, where just about everything happens, just about everything did in this tough tussle.

There was one moment in the fourth round, when both fighters fell out of the ring. There was another, in the eighth, when Burman, unable to do anything using an orthodox stance, switched to a southpaw style and for a couple of minutes had Melio on the run.

And finally, you had the somewhat startling picture of Burman, whose chin Louis couldn't dent with his Sunday shots, twice being staggered by Bettina's left hand pokes, which hitherto never had been regarded as needing a sign warning the unwary of high explosive content.

All in all, however, it was an important, and upset triumph for the determined little Italian from Beacon, N. Y., who quit the light-heavyweight ranks nearly a year ago to campaign among the big boys.

The Associated Press score card gave Melio eight rounds and Burman two.

Old Timers Await Saturday Eve. Tilt

Interest again is being focused on Saturday night when the old-timers of Jamestown and Warren will meet at Civic Stadium in Jamestown to play a benefit game for the Stacey Ross Memorial Fund.

The contest, postponed from last week because of rain, will start at 7:30 p. m DST., as it was scheduled last week.

The remainder of the program will not be changed and while it is not definite that all of the Warren players will make a second trip to the hiltop, it is expected that Manager Roy Pearce will have around twenty men on the roster ready for action.

SPORT SPATTERINGS

CLEANING UP THE DESK

Down the middle . . . It's never too late to break into the big leagues, and though many fans may not have realized it, The Boston Red Sox's new pitching wonder, Dick Newsome, was 31 when he got his chance this year . . . He's won ten games . . . Here's a record DiMaggio set that few people know about . . . In addition to hitting in 56 consecutive games for a new mark, Joe went 33 contests without fanning the breezes . . . From June 8, until his consecutive hitting spree was ended, Di Mag batted 128 times without letting the third strike get by unmolested . . . And it was seldom pitchers got as far as throwing a pitch that might have been that third strike . . . At the present time, the St. Louis Cardinals are playing the best ball in the senior circuit, and who but the Pittsburgh Pirates are a close second! . . . And in the American loop, it's no mystery that no team has been matching the Pride of the Bronx . . . The Yankees have been commanding their circuit since June 29, and in less than a month have won enough ball games to give themselves a higher won-loss percentage than the Dodgers hold in the National . . . First time this year, since the first few weeks, that the American Leaguers have done this . . .

The St. Louis Cardinals are going to have another pitching star with them by next season, at least according to present reports . . . He's Howard Follett, Houston's left-handed boy wonder. . . And Virgil Trucks, now tossing them for Buffalo, and a real strikeout artist, may be in a Detroit Tiger uniform in '42 . . . Pitcher Bob Bowman, of the New York Giants, was once a bat boy for his home town baseball team at Keystone, W. Va. . . . There's the story around about a Brooklyn newspaper publishing an editorial urging that the National League end of the world series be played at Ebbets Field and not moved to Yankee Stadium, regardless of gate receipts or room for customers . . . But what is worrying Larry MacPhail more at the moment is the National League end of the series being shifted to St. Louis! Ah, these aluminum campaigns! . . . In Shreveport, Ala. Monday night Mrs. George Roby went to the ball game at the Texas League park . . . When she returned to her automobile two aluminum hub caps were missing . . . Admission to the game was scrap aluminum! . . .

Jimmy Johnston, fight manager who pilots Bob Pastor and Abe Simon, picks Jack Johnson, Gene Tunney, and Joe Louis as the three greatest heavy champs of all time . . . There have only been two Negro titlists, Johnson and Louis, and they both were so outstanding that Johnson may have them in just about the right spot . . . Pete Reiser has a cheering gallery any time he wishes by just inviting his brothers and sisters to a ball game . . . He has five sisters and two brothers . . . Benny McCoy and his draft board have had so much trouble as to whether or not Benny should join his Uncle Samuel, that they're going to let President Roosevelt decide the matter if he will . . . Up to now, Bobby Feller has beaten every team in the league at least once, except the Chicago White Sox . . . Long ago, in Clarendon, Texas, a baseball game was played that ended with one pitch . . . Giles and Clarendon were playing and the first batter for Giles hit the first pitch into a mesquite patch . . . From there it rolled down a prairie dog hole . . . The umpire hollered, "Play ball!" . . . But they couldn't play ball and Giles won the game 1-0 because that was the only "apple" and the nearest baseball was forty miles away!

SECOND ROUND TODAY OF SEMI-PRO TOURNEY

Vandergrift, Pa., July 23.—(AP)—The state semi-pro baseball tournament moved into the second round today with ten of the survivors scheduled to clash today in five contests.

In winding up the first round yesterday the Brackenridge S. W. O. C. beat New Freedom 9 to 7, with Goldberg hitting a homer for the victors and Shoff one for the losers. The Vandergrift Redbirds walloped the Vandergrift Grays 9 to 2 and Lower Burrell beat Leechburg Marconi 4 to 0.

Today's games:

Elkland vs Swissvale; Greensboro Warwicks vs. Nemacolin; Lower Burrell vs. Vandergrift Redbirds; Greensburg Walworth vs Freeport Merchants and Ford City vs Brackenridge SWOC.

feurs, road workers, salesmen, and laborers, were taken into defense industries as inspectors, drill press and machine operators, civil service workers and assembly men.

In the past month, according to Dr. Bird, more than 300 of the students have qualified for the United States civil service and many of these have been placed in arsenals, at airports, and in similar government positions.

Combined value of all types of incubators manufactured in U. S. factories during the decade beginning with 1930 was $22,212,000, according to Census Bureau records.

SCRANTON OBSERVES 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Scranton, July 23—(AP)—An eight-day celebration marking the 100th anniversary of the founding of Scranton and the 75th year of the city's incorporation was formally opened today when Mayor Fred J. Huester greeted hundreds of former residents who have returned for the event. A holiday spirit prevailed and miles of streets and hundreds of buildings were decorated for the occasion.

Parades, music festivals, patriotic spectacles, luncheons, banquets, a coronation ball at which the young women selected as queens of Scranton and Lackawanna county will be crowned; the official opening of Pennsylvania's first traffic circles and a score of other highlights got underway at a luncheon at which Worthington Scranton, grandson of the city's founder and general chairman of the committee that arranged the diamond jubilee centennial program, presided.

Flames Sweeping Moscow

(From Page One)

German press dispatches reported the destruction of 92 Russian tanks in a battle south of Kiev, the Urkraine capital, yesterday, and DNB, the official German news agency, asserted that Nazi and Finnish troops had knifed deep into Russian lines on the northern front, east of Lake Ladoga.

"In the Ukraine," the Nazi high command said, "German, Rumanian, Hungarian and Slovak troops are continuing their pursuit untiringly"—in a drive toward Kiev.

"On other parts of the eastern front, enveloping and annihilation of small and big Soviet groups continue."

The German communique said that bombs of the heaviest caliber and showers of incendiaries inflicted "serious destruction" in last night's dusk-to-dawn attack on Moscow, and that fires set the night before were still raging out of control.

By contrast, the Russians officially declared that the raid was a fizzle, with most of the luftwaffe beaten off and 10 per cent of them shot down.

Amid conflicting reports from Moscow and Berlin on the land fighting, the Germans declared that Nazi legions had scored important gains on the central front, storming key defenses of Polotsk in a violent 2-day offensive with grenades and flame-throwers. Red army troops were reported wiped out by the tens of thousands as they fought to the death from shell-smashed bunkers.

Polotsk lies 140 miles northwest of the vital Smolensk sector.

The Russians acknowledged German-Finnish penerations on the northern front and a deepening Nazi thrust into the Ukraine, but declared fighting continued yesterday on the same shell-torn central front with the Nazi onslaught still checked.

First German reports described the second overnight raid on Moscow as turning mid-city areas into a sea of flames, with heavy hits around the Kremlin and Red Square and fires touched off in the government building district to the east.

The Russians said dozens were killed and wounded and some fires were started, but no military objectives were hit. They reported 15 of 150 raiders downed, compared with 22 of more than 200 shot out of the sky the night before, and declared only a few raiders got through the searchlight patterns and thundering barrages.

The Red army declared heavy fighting continued yesterday on the central front of Porkhov and Smolensk and in two new sectors—Petrozavodsk and Zhitomir. Petrozavodskk, 250 miles north of Leningrad, is on the vital rail line north to Murmansk, ice-free Arctic port.

Shitomir, 50 miles closer to Kiev than Novograd Volynski, where fighting has been mentioned previously is 85 miles from the Ukraine capital.

Washington, London Watch Critical Far Eastern Situation

(From Page One)

Sydney said Britain, the United States, the Dutch East Indies and Australia were fully aware of the threatened danger and had engaged in "the fullest consultations" on problems of defense.

In Washington, President Roosevelt took occasion at his press conference yesterday to disclose a navy report that Toyko had clamped a censorship on both radio and cable. He answered affirmatively when asked if he considered this action significant.

From Toyko the Japanese news agency Domei, however, broadcast a statement by "authoritative sources" admitting that restrictions had been imposed on the use of foreign languages in outgoing telegrams and in telephone talks but denying that any new censorship had been imposed.

The Japanese government announced July 14 that henceforth telegrams could be sent abroad only in Japanese or German, that messages in code must be accompanied by a translation and that all messages must be signed.

Far ..ast experts expressed the opinion that Japan's reported new demands on Indo-China were based on Tokyo's determination to get within striking distance of the rich Dutch East Indies and Britain's strategic Singapore naval base.

Should France's Nazi-dominated government at Vichy fail to capitulate quickly, these experts said, Japan could be expected to open an immediate offensive against Indo-China.

Dispatches from Vichy said it was likely that France and Japan might reach an understanding for the technical "protection" of French Indo-China by the Japanese. In this connection, it was recalled that the Japanese press has published assertions that the Chinese, the British and Gen. Charles De Gaulle's Free French forces were preparing to invade Indo-China.

Conferences between Admiral Jean Decoux, governor-general of Indi-China, and Major General Rashiro Sumita, head of the Japanese military mission stationed in the French colony, continued at Hanoi. Official silence heightened the belief in some quarters that Sumita was presenting new demands.

Reports from Shanghai said that Japanese troops, planes and ships were massed at Hainan, an island off the south China coast opposite Indo-China, for the expected move into the French colony, and that Japanese fleet transports were standing by near the mouth of the Pearle river.

Peiping dispatches said there was a growing belief that Japan's armies in North China and Manchoukuo were in the midst of important shifts. Well-grounded reports said 20 troop-laden Japanese trains had been moving north in the past few days, possibly headed for the port of Chinwangtao, where they could embark for a movement southward.

LARGE INCREASE IN STEEL MANUFACTURE

New York, July 23.—(AP)—The magazine "Iron Age" said today "heavy pressure for steel to be used in building the two-ocean navy and in completing other projects under the vast national defense program this week brought out details of the large increase in capacity planned for Carnegie Illinois Steel Corp's Homestead, Pa., plant.

"Ingot capacity at Homestead and at the nearby Duquesne, Pa., plant of Carnegie-Illinois will be lifted by 1,800,000 tons through the construction of 12 open hearth furnaces of 200 tons capacity each and of two electric furnaces with an annual output of 100,000 tons. xxx The project will lift steel capacity of the Pittsburgh district by almost 10 per cent."

URGES SCRAP STEEL BE COLLECTED NEXT

Washington, July 23—(AP)—Senator James J. Davis, Republican, of Pittsburgh, suggested today a nationwide collection of steel scrap.

It would help defense needs in the metal industries, he said, and the funds acquired through the collection could be used for the welfare of the armed forces.

In a letter to Mayor LaGuardia, director of civilian defense, Davis said: "An organized collection of steel scrap for welfare purposes would, in my opinion, result in an increased flow of scrap and a benefit to the agencies participating in these efforts.

Predicts Military Activity

isa Buro Nomura, is an infrequent caller at the state department and his visit today was linked with widespread reports of Japanese preparations for some military stroke.

Welles was expected to ask Admiral Nomura to clarify Japanese intentions, making it clear at the same time that the United States was vitally interested in maintenance of the peace in the Pacific.

Washington, July 23.— (AP) — Some far eastern experts expressed the view today that underlying Japan's record new demands on Indi-China was a Tokyo determination to place Japanese forces in easy striking distance of the rich Dutch East Indies and Britain's strategic Singapore naval base.

These authorities, declining to be quoted by name, said the demands undoubtedly called for virtual Japanese domination of France's Far Eastern possession. Should Vichy fail to capitulate quickly, they added, the Japanese could be expected to open an immediate offensive against Indo-China in anticipation of a speedy conquest.

Press dispatches from Vichy were confined to a bare statement that the French and Japanese governments were negotiating in regard to Indo-China. In London authorized sources said reports of the demands were disturbing to the British in view of Japanese assurances a month ago that Japan had no territorial demands in Indo-China.

American officials were watching the situation intently. President Roosevelt took occasion at his press conference yesterday to disclose a navy report that Tokyo had imposed a censorship on both radio and cable. He answered affirmatively when asked whether he considered this action significant.

REFUSE REQUEST TO END INVESTIGATION

Washington, July 23—(AP)—The Federal Communications Commission refused today a request of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association to terminate its investigation of newspaper ownership of radio stations stating brusquely that the petition could not be considered seriously.

After releasing this formal decision, the commission proceeded to open its inquiry with a statement from Chairman James L. Fly on the background of newspaper-in-radio.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, July 23—(AP)—Wheat prices declined almost a cent in early trading today reflecting weakness of cotton and lagging flour demand. Opening ⅜ to ⅞ lower, July 1.01-1.00⅞, Sept. 103⅝-¼, wheat later held near this range. Corn started unchanged to ⅜ lower, July 72⅝, Sept 74⅝.

Students Learning to Fly Here

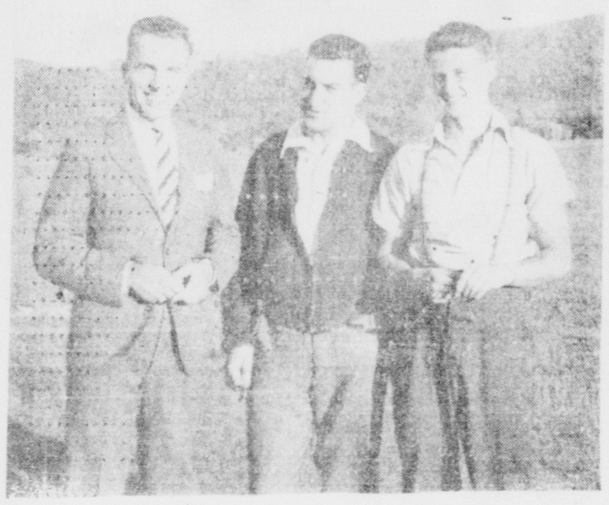
Jim Miller Jess Perry Bob Branstrom



J. R. Thompson Bob Hines John Myers

Evald Benson "Slip" King Bob Lesser

Those shown are Robert Branstrom, of Russell; Jess Perry, of Clarendon; J. R. Thompson, of Erie; Robert Hines, Mt. Jewett; John Myers, Kane; James Miller, Evald Benson and Robert Lesser, Warren.

Lesser's big smile is due to the fact that he had just soloed before the picture was taken. These students are a mighty fine group and all soloed in the minimum allowable time and averaged 90 per cent in their ground school grades.

The instructors of the King Air Service and all interested in the local airport are proud of the ability of these boys to fly in all kinds of wind and weather. Their experience is limited yet, but they are doing a fine job. It is this type of young man that makes a real pilot, it was stated.

A new C. P. T. ground school is being started immediately and there are still openings for several young men between the ages of 19 and 26. Anyone interested may contact the local airport, it was stated today.

AID GOVERNMENT

Johnstown, Pa., July 23—(AP)—Kenneth Vaughan, president of the Radio Servicemen of America, announced today the 10,000 members of his organization are actively joining in the government's movement to salvage scrap aluminum and nickel. He said the servicemen would ask customers to donate aluminum and also would gather old vacuum tubs which contain an ounce or two of nickel each.

Irvine

Irvine, July 21—The ladies of the Methodist church will hold an ice cream social on Mrs. Olson's lawn on Thursday evening, July 24, for the benefit of the church.

The John Dailey family and the Harry Archbold family attended the Wilcox reunion at Island Park, Youngsville, Sunday, the 20th.

Floyd Walters, of Buffalo, visited here over the weekend and he and his brother, Frank, motored to Wellsville, N. Y., to the night ball game last evening.

CHILD INJURED AT SHEFFIELD

Sheffield, July 23—James Snyder, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder, Mill street, suffered a multiple fracture of the left wrist early Monday evening when a limb broke beneath him and he fell out of a tree in which he and some companions were playing in a field not far from the youth's home. The injured member was X-rayed and the fractured bones were set Tuesday morning at the Kane Community Hospital.

PUBLIC INVITED

The general public of the community is cordially invited to attend the social and reception which the local Democratic organization is giving Thursday evening of this week in honor of Attorney E. H. Beshlin, of Warren, prominent candidate for the county judgeship.

The committee in charge of the event, which will be held in the Democratic Club, 15 Center street, beginning at 8 p. m., has announced that music for the occasion will be provided by Roger Webster, baritone; Miss Mary Pat O'Connor, violinist, and a vocal trio that includes Misses Louise Anundson and Marjorie Carlson, and Mrs. Jeanne Bramer Harampoulis.

PERSONALS

George Miller, of Springfield, O., is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, having been called by the illness of his father, who is recovering from a heart attack suffered a few days ago.

Joseph Epstein is spending the week in New York City, where he is visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yoos and son, Fred, and Mrs. Bertha Kinche, of Philadelphia, were visitors recently at the F. B. Sprague home. Mr. Yoos attended the 28th Division convention held last week in Bradford. He is a member of the old World War outfit. The ladies are sisters of Mrs. Sprague.

Germans Report Violent Air Attack on Russian Capital

WASHINGTON, LONDON WATCH CRITICAL FAR EASTERN SITUATION

By the Associated Press

Far East dispatches said today Japan has made sweeping demands for concessions in southern French Indo-China, possible springboard for an attack on Britain's great naval base at Singapore, and that the French had yielded.

Simultaneously, a Reuters (British news agency) dispatch from Hanoi, the capital of France's Oriental colony, said it had been confirmed officially that the Japanese had demanded the use of facilities in southern Indo-China.

By "facilities" it was assumed the Japanese meant airfields and naval bases.

Conferences between French Admiral Jean Decoux, governor general of Indo-China, and Major General Raishiro Sumita, chief of the Japanese military mission, were said to be continuing at Hanoi, with the end not yet in sight.

Washington and London watched the critical situation with mounting anxiety.

Berlin, too, kept an eye on developments, which might affect United States aid to Britain and China, and the German radio declared:

"According to news available here, the Japanese government has learned that British aims are directed at French Indo-China.

"The Japanese government is determined to defend its interest with all the means at its disposal against such intentions. The French government is likewise believed to share this view."

In London, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden told parliament that the British government was keenly "aware of persistent reports to the effect that the Japanese government intend to take action to obtain naval and air bases in southern Indo-China."

Eden declared flatly that alleged British designs on either Indo-China or neighboring Thailand (Siam) were "entirely non-existent."

Japan already holds air bases in northern Indo-China and has troops garrisoned at Hanoi and at Haipong, chief northern seaport.

Widespread reports have indicated she would also demand footholds in Saigon, chief city of the south, and perhaps at Camranh Bay, naval base on the southeast coast of Indo-China.

Foreign military quarters in Shanghai, noting an ominous series of Japanese war preparations, declared that Japan was girding to invade Indo-China within a week.

EXPELLED AXIS DIPLOMATS ARE NOW IN LISBON

Lisbon, July 23—(AP)—The United States naval transport West Point docked in Lisbon harbor at 8:10 a. m. today but the expelled German and Italian diplomats aboard were informed they could not land until American consuls for whom they are being exchanged have crossed the Portuguese border.

Despite the early hour scores of people were on hand to watch the big ship nose her way up the Tagus river towards a berth near the American export line ships.

The West Point, formerly the America, left New York eight days ago with 500 passengers for her first trans-Atlantic trip. She will pick up American consular officials who have left Germany and Italy, on the return voyage.

As the West Point moved into the harbor, four special trains bringing United States diplomats from Germany, Italy and occupied territories were crossing Spain toward the Portuguese frontier.

POST-WAR AIMS ARE STATED BY SUMNER WELLES

Declaration Designed to Assure All Peoples of Fair Peace And Equal Economic Opportunities; Directed at Europe

STRIKES AT HITLER

Washington, July 23.—(AP)—A declaration by Sumner Welles, designed to assure all peoples of a fair peace and equal economic opportunities, gave the nation and the world today the most definite official statement yet made of the American government's post-war objectives.

In the capital the impression prevailed, moreover, that the declaration was directed even more at Nazi-conquered Europe than at this country and the general belief was that in this respect it constituted an attempt to stimulate popular resistance to German rule and drive a wedge between Adolf Hitler and the German people.

The American post-war aims were stated by Welles, acting secretary of state, last night in a speech at the laying of a cornerstone for a new wing of the Norwegian legation. But what he had to say about the future he prefaced with the grim assertion that "there can be no peace until the Hitler government of Germany has been finally and utterly destroyed."

Welles' immediate audience at the ceremonies included the Norwegian minister, Wilhelm Munthe de Morgenstierne, representative of the exiled government of King Haakon VII, now in London who said:

"We hope that the very fact of our expanding at this time, when Norway is being temporarily occupied and raped by foreign masters might symbolize to you, to the world, yes, to the aggressors themselves, that we defy them, that we are building for the future, that we have abundant faith in victory and freedom."

(London reported that extracts from Welles' speech were quoted in British broadcasts to the European continents, in about 25 different languages.)

At the outset of his talk Welles said the ideal for which "peoples of good will" should work in order to attain a permanent peace was the creation after the war of an association of nations powerful enough to guarantee disarmament and equal economic opportunities.

BERLIN MORNING PRESS ATTACKS U. S. PRESIDENT

Berlin, July 23—(AP)—Attacks on President Roosevelt pushed the German war off the front pages of the entire Berlin morning press today.

Although the luftwaffe in the past 24 hours carried modern technical warfare to Moscow, which had not heard the din of battle with a foreign foe since 1812, editors gave the whole of their front pages to a rejuvenated anti-Roosevelt campaign.

The president was charged with intriguing against Germany in Bolivia. DNB, the official German news agency, said he was trying to bring Bolivia into the status of "colonial dependence" on the United States.

Also under attack was his message to Congress, and the press branded as lies his remarks concerning German threats to the United States.

Without exception, morning newspapers also published on their front pages a picture of President Roosevelt with his sons James, Franklin and Elliott, at a Masonic lodge session.

According to Nazi tenets, being a Mason is almost a cardinal sin and the picture is supposed to be particularly damaging evidence, as the Voelkischer Beobachter said in a two-line banner headline, that "Roosevelt is the main tool of Jewish world Freemasonry."

(Freemasonry in parts of continental Europe years ago developed activities, including interference with politics, which led many governments to declare it a danger to the state and to suppress it within their jurisdictions. Freemasonry in the United States, as well as the

NURSES ARRIVE IN U. S. AFTER RESCUE AT SEA

Norfolk, Va., July 23—(AP)—Their ship torpedoed some 400 miles off the coast of Greenland while en route to Great Britain, four American Red Cross nurses came home yesterday under the strong arm of the U. S. Navy with a vivid story of 12 days in an open boat in the north Atlantic.

Picked up July 5 by an American destroyer, they were taken first to a naval hospital at Reykjavik, Iceland, for treatment of gangrene of the feet and exposure before coming here in a Navy transport commanded by Capt. Clarence Gulbranson.

The four, who sailed June 5 from New Orleans aboard a 7,000-ton vessel were Marion Blissett of Detroit, Mich.; Victoria Pelc of Auburn, N. Y.; Rachel St. Pierre of Boston, and Lilian M. Pesnicak of Albany, N. Y.

House-To-House Collection of Old Aluminum To Be Staged On Friday

Nine Trucks and More Than 75 Boy Scouts to Conduct Drive Under Direction of Fire Chief; Districts Announced

COOPERATION ASKED

Starting promptly at 4 p. m. on Friday, nine trucks and more than 75 Boy Scouts will start out from the municipal building here to make a house-to-house collection of discarded aluminum articles to provide Warren's share of scrap aluminum being donated for national defense production, it was announced today by Burgess R. W. Steber, who is in charge of the pick-up in the borough.

To Housewives

The following special notes to housewives of Warren were issued by the aluminum collection committee today:

1. Have your articles ready so collectors will not have to wait while you rummage the attic or excavate the cellar.
2. If you cannot be at home put your hardware on the front porch or other accessible place.
3. All who are missed will be re-visited on Saturday morning.

Under a plan worked out by Fire Chief Douglas G. Kropf, the borough has been divided into nine districts for this intensive portion of the campaign. To each district will be assigned one truck and several Boy Scouts.

The aluminum will be collected by the Boy Scouts and carried to central points in the district, where it will be deposited on the trucks. The trucks will then take the arti-

NEW FINANCIAL PROBLEMS FACE GOVERNOR JAMES

Mellon Securities Corporation Is Lone Bidder on State's Tax Anticipation Bonds; Fiscal Officers Await Decision

HIGHER RATE ASKED

Harrisburg, July 23.—(AP)—New financial problems confronted the governor today as the state sought to sell $135,000,000 in tax anticipation notes and began assuming control of 12 mental hospitals the legislature turned over to the commonwealth.

Only one bidder applied to purchase the notes, and the state's fiscal officers awaited Governor James' return today from the funeral of William S. Rial, liquor control board chairman, for a decision.

The interest rate was higher than that charged at the last sale of notes six months ago.

After a three-hour conference, Dr. Edward B. Logan, the governor's budget secretary; Arthur W. Howe, deputy auditor general; and Samuel Baugher, deputy state treasurer, decided to withhold award of the issues to the Mellon Securities Corporation, lone bidder, pending a study by the governor.

The Mellon corporation, representing 60 financial houses, offered bids on two issues, one of $45,324,857 for ten months, and the other for $90,778,300 for 21 months. The interest asked on the short term issue was .63 of one per cent, and the longer one at .99 of one per cent. The interest would amount to $1,103,157, or about $250,000 more than the notes floated a half-year ago, when the rate was .247 per cent.

Bankers at the conference said higher rates were needed today to bring a profit.

The legislature authorized the administration to issue $175,000,000 but Dr. Logan and the governor decided to keep back $40,000,000 for any emergency which

STAHLNECKER QUITS AS BOARD CHAIRMAN

Harrisburg, July 23—(AP)—P. Stephen Stahlnecker resigned today as chairman of the unemployment compensation board of review at $9,000 a year, effective July 31.

Stahlnecker submitted his resignation to Governor James yesterday, explaining he intended to enter private employment in the city of Harrisburg.

He has been a familiar figure on Capitol hill and in state politics since he served as secretary to former Governor Gifford Pinchot a decade ago.

PITTSBURGH WAITER DROWNED IN MISHAP

Washington, Pa., July 23.—(AP)—A 29-year-old Pittsburgh waiter, who couldn't swim, lost his life yesterday in the deep waters of Chambers dam near here, when a canoe in which he was riding with two Castle Shannon girls overturned.

Screams of Emily Rockacy, 22, and Geraldine Faust, 13, quickly brought a rowboat to the spot but it was two and one-half hours before the body of their companion, Rodger Scheuer, was recovered.

Miss Rockacy tried to tow Scheuer to the overturned canoe, she said, but he broke from her grasp and disappeared.

Lancaster, July 23.—(AP)—The Armstrong Cork Company today declared an interim dividend of 25c a share on its common stock, payable September 1 to stockholders of record August 4, 1941, and also a dividend of $1.00 a share on preferred stock, payable September 15 to stockholders of record September 1.

PREDICTS MILITARY ACTIVITY

Navy Secretary Knox Declares Recent Developments in Far East Indicate New Movement By Japanese; Ambassador to Confer With Acting Secretary of State Today

STRICT CENSORSHIP IS IMPOSED BY JAPS

Washington, July 23—(AP)—Secretary of Navy Frank Knox today said there was "no question" but that recent developments in the Far East, including the Japanese government's establishment of radio and cable censorship on information from that country, meant new military movements in the Far East.

Knox told his press conference: "I look for movement out there —and very soon."

He declined, however, to discuss the possible direction of such a move, saying that "no one can tell at this point whether it will go north or south."

The Navy Department yesterday informed President Roosevelt that the Japanese had established censorship and at his press conference President Roosevelt said he considered it significant, but referred questioners to the State Department when asked if he expected it to be the prelude to an aggressive action in the Orient.

Sumner Welles, acting secretary of state, arranged to receive the Japanese ambassador (at 3 p. m. EST) today amid increasing signs that the United States was preparing new notice to Japan on the threat of military moves in the Far East.

The navy secretary was asked whether the United States fleet was in position to do "whatever is necessary to carry out our policy in the far east."

Smiling, Knox said "yes," and declined to elaborate.

It was not disclosed whether Welles or the ambassador requested a meeting but all indications were that the envoy would be told plainly that American-Japanese relations would suffer a further strain from any military move into French Indo-China or elsewhere.

The Japanese ambassador, Kich-

COMPROMISE ON EXTENSION OF DRAFT OFFERED

BULLETIN

Washington, July 23.—(AP)—General George C. Marshall denounced today as sabotage of a dangerous character what he said were organized efforts to have draftees petition Congress against extending the service of selectees and national guardsmen.

Washington, July 23—(AP)—A provision to excuse certain classes of national guardsmen and reserves from further army service was proposed today by Senator Connally (D.-Tex.) as a compromise to meet some of the criticism of legislation to retain citizen soldiers in uniform beyond the present limit of one year.

Connally said he had discussed this proposal with Secretary of War Stimson, adding that if the War Department did not itself recommend changes he would offer

PUC SETS DATES FOR PITTSBURGH HEARING

Harrisburg, July 23—(AP)—The Public Utility Commission today fixed hearings at Pittsburgh for September 3, 4 and 5 on a plan of reorganization of Pittsburgh Railways Company and Pittsburgh Motor Coach Company, recently filed by the trustees.

The plan is the second to be submitted to the commission for approval. The first, filed on August 5, 1940, was rejected November 27, 1940, "as being neither fair nor in the public interest."

Property-Supplies Secretary Resigns

Harrisburg, July 23—(AP)—Roger W. Rowland, of New Castle, today submitted his resignation as secretary of properties and supplies in Governor James' cabinet, effective July 31, and the governor immediately accepted it with "deep regret."

Rowland, appointed to the secretary's post at the beginning of the James administration, told the governor in a letter that "the demands both directly and indirectly arising out of the defense program make it imperative that I give my undivided attention to my business." He is president of the New Castle Refractories Company.

No successor to Rowland has been chosen yet.

STATE COLLEGE GIVES TRAINING TO OVER 2,000

Engineering Defense Education Program Places Large Number of Pennsylvanians in Vital Industry Since January

WILL CARRY ON PLAN

State College, July 23—(AP)—More than 2,000 Pennsylvanians have been placed in defense industries or have obtained better jobs as a result of the engineering defense training program at the Pennsylvania State College since last January, officials said today.

"More men are being placed daily," said Dr. Joseph W. Bird, in charge of placement for the education plan, "and before July 31 we expect that another 1,000 will be working in defense industries in Pennsylvania and nearby states.

"Our survey shows unquestionably that any man willing to prepare himself for a special job today may obtain one," Dr. Bird said. "Business and industry are just as eager to get trained men as unemployed men are to get jobs."

According to data compiled by the college placement office, 50,000 vacancies exist at present in Pennsylvania industries, and the complete program of college is designed to train more than 20,000 workers for such jobs.

State College and other colleges and universities have undertaken training programs under the United States Office of Education to help relieve the shortage of trained defense workers by conducting an extensive evening class program. Penn State has trained 10,000 men and women in more than 50 cities and towns of the state.

The students attend classes at night and study mathematics, cost control, tool design, foreman training, inspection, testing, pre-foremanship, machine operation and other subjects. In some fields, notably time and motion study and machine operation, the supply of men is sufficient to meet the demand, according to Dr. Bird.

Most of the men who were formerly unemployed became heat treaters, layout inspectors, arsenal workers, plate makers, inspectors, and time and motion study men.

Among the employed, men who were principally clerks, chauf-

FLAMES SWEEPING MOSCOW

Reds Admit Casualties and Damage But Declare Assault a Failure; Hitler's Headquarters Declare Soviet Armies Falling Back Along Entire Front in 32-Day-Old Struggle

FIGHTING CONTINUES IN CENTRAL SECTORS

BULLETIN

London, July 23.—(AP)—A Reuters (British news agency) dispatch from Moscow said today it was learned on good authority that Smolensk, 230 miles west of Moscow, still was in Russian hands. The German High Command reported its fall last week.

By the Associated Press

German bombers left scores killed and wounded in Moscow today and reported that "vast flaming seas" engulfed the Soviet capital, while on the fighting front Adolf Hitler's high command declared Russian troops were suffering "extraordinarily sanguinary losses" everywhere.

It was Moscow's second successive night raid.

The Russians, while admitting casualties, fires and bomb-wrecked homes, declared the Moscow assault was a failure. They also insisted that Soviet troops were still fighting in the same zones as yesterday.

Hitler's headquarters pictured the Red armies as falling back along the entire front in the 32-day-old struggle, suffering terrific losses in attempts to relieve encircled units.

SETTLEMENT IN MATCH INDUSTRY IS ANNOUNCED

Washington, Juuly 23—(AP)—Settlement of a wage dispute involving 4,000 workers in the match industry in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Washington was announced by the U. S. Cociliation Service.

The National Match Workers' Council, AFL, had voted to strike last Thursday, asking an increase of 10 cents an hour. Terms of the settlement were not announced, pending ratification of the agreement by the union membership.

Officials said the strike action was postponed when the conciliation service asked representatives of the union and the industry to meet here. Companies represented included Diamond Match, Ohio Match, Palmer Match, Wisconsin Match, Federal Match division of the Pan American Corporation and the Burst, Forster, Dixfield Company.

Pennsylvania Representative May Not Run Again If Muddle Continues

BY JOSEPH A. LOFTUS

Washington, July 23—(AP)—Representative Patrick J. Boland, Democrat, Scranton, Pa., the majority whip, may not seek another term in Congress unless the existing apportionment muddle in his state is cleared up.

Boland called the legislature's failure to redistrict the state "a disgrace," and remarked in an interview: "I can't see any good reason for being a candidate and running at large in the state of Pennsylvania."

The federal apportionment method allows Pennsylvania only 33 representatives under the 1940 census returns, instead of the present 34. All must be elected at large next year unless the state is redistricted. The legislature failed to agree on a method and adjourned last week.

Boland, serving his sixth term, said the existing situation "is a very decided detriment to the more sparsely populated sections which are now represented in Congress by men who know the needs of those localities. An election of 33 congressmen at large gives the big cities an undue advantage. In my judgment the ultimate outcome would be unfair representation in Congress. I can't see any good reason for being a candidate and running at large in the state of Pennsylvania."

Senator James J. Davis, Republican, Pittsburgh, disclosed he has asked the director of the census for his opinion of the resolution introduced by Representative Samuel A. Weiss, Allegheny county Democrat, under which the census bureau would redistrict the state.

Davis' letter asked the director, "Is this practical and constitutional?"

Soldiers of 28th Division Urged To Enlist in Anti-Tank Battalion

BY F. L. FITZPATRICK

Indiantown Gap, July 23—(AP)—Soldiers of the 28th Division are urged to "be tank busters."

The newly formed anti-tank battalion which came into official being on July 10 is actively trying to interest division soldiers to transfer to the fast-moving, hard-hitting unit. An advertisement in the Pennsylvania Guardsman, weekly publication of the division, urges the "tank buster" battalion be brought up to its full war-time strength of 655 men before the troops leave for maneuvers in August.

The anti-tank unit expects to get 200 of the 615 infantry selectees scheduled to arrive from Fort Bragg, N. C., next Thursday morning. The unit also expects an additional 110 infantry selectees who arrived here last week from Camp Wheeler, Ga., to enroll.

The anti-tank battalion, commanded by Maj. Carl L. Peterson, Bradford, at present has a complement of 216 men and 26 officers. Present equipment of the unit consists of five "dummy" 37 millimeter guns and four 75 millimeter field pieces.

Details for operation are being worked out, and the battalion is bivouacked under canvas at the northwest corner of Muir Field, where they will remain until they leave for maneuvers at Bowling Green, Va., about August 2.

The balance of the 615 selectees expected from Fort Bragg Thursday, will be divided, according to present plans, as follows:

Ninety-three to the 107th Field Artillery, Pittsburgh; 234 to the 108th Field Artillery, Philadelphia, and 88 to the 109th Field Artillery, Wilkes-Barre

TWO ARRESTED FOR VIOLATION OF LIQUOR LAW

Sheffield, July 23—Sequel to the series of raids and arrests staged over the weekend in the county by state and federal liquor law enforcement agents and local police was the arrest here yesterday at their woods camp home in Four Mile of Joe White, 43, and his wife, Flora White, 38, on warrants charging them with illegal sale of liquor, illegal sae of malt beverages and with maintaining a disorderly house.

The arrests were made by local Police Chief Sanford Secor, who was accompanied by Private N. B. Johns of the state motor police. The violations with which White and his wife were charged all allegedly occurred when the couple, who only recently moved to the woods camp, were residing in a home on Barnes street, this community. The informations on the liquor law violations were filed by agents of the State Liquor Control Board and that on the disorderly house charge by Chief Secor.

Arraigned before local Justice Edwin Anderson, both White and his wife pleaded guilty to all three charges. Each posted bond in the amount of $800 for appearance at the next term of court.

Nurses Arrive In U. S. After Rescue At Sea

without details by the navy July 9. Two others of the party were picked up and are now in a hospital at Londonderry, Ireland, but the Red Cross had no word of the other four.

Their exposure to the open sea during the nearly two weeks in which they subsisted on hardtack and meatballs doled out by the captain of the vessel, brought on the gangrene. Their condition has improved since then.

Two torpedoes struck the vessel which had dropped behind a convoy at 7:15 a. m. June 24, sending it to the bottom within eight minutes. The submarine then surfaced and the crew offered to take the women aboard. The answer was "no."

Rough rainy weather set in the third day as the captain turned his lifeboat toward Greenland.

Blue Barron at Library Theatre Friday

BLUE BARRON

Blue Barron's rise to fame as a nationally-known radio recording, movie and dance band maestro dates back to October, 1936, when the management of the Floating Palace, showboat at Tory, New York, engaged the orchestra for a tryout after having played some of the country's biggest name bands. He will appear at the Library Theatre for one day only, Friday, July 25th, afternoon and evening. In addition to his band, there will appear Russ Carlisle, vocalist, and Charlie Fischer, the tenor with the whimsical smile, plus Ronnie Snyder, steel guitarist. Don't miss this fine musical presentation at the Library Theatre for one day only, Friday, July 25th, afternoon and evening.

Post-War Aims Are Stated By Sumner Welles

son at the close of the World War the acting secretary said he did not believe that peoples of good will "will not once more strive to realize the great ideal of an association of nations through which the freedom, the happiness and the security of all peoples may be achieved."

He said that the League of Nations had failed to establish lasting peace "in part because of the blind selfishness of men here in the United States as well as in other parts of the world." United States membership was blocked by the Senate in 1920.

The failure must also be attributed, Welles said, to the fact that the league was forced by those who controlled it to operate "as a means of maintaining the status quo."

It was never able to function as President Wilson had intended it, he said, "as an elastic and impartial instrument in bringing about peaceful and equitable adjustments between nations as times and circumstances proved necessary."

Real disarmament can never be achieved, he said, "without some rigid form of international supervision" and no lasting peace ever will be established without providing fully and adequately for "the natural rights of all peoples to equal economic enjoyment."

LARGEST DRAFT FAMILY

Columbia, Pa., July 23—(AP)—Four brothers of Lancaster county's largest draft family expect to be in the army soon Irwin and Ivan Birk, 23-year-old twin brothers, the latest to volunteer, will take their final examinations August 6. Norman, 22, and Robert, 26, were inducted last week. In all, eight members of the family have registered for Selective Service.

BLUE BARRON AND HIS MUSIC OF YESTERDAY AND TODAY

On the Library Theatre Stage in Person One Day Only, Friday, July 25th, Afternoon and Evening

Blue Barron, youthful CRA orchestra leader, whose versatile orchestra has scored a terrific hit at the Green Room of Hotel Edison in New York City, with nightly broadcasts over the NBC network, comes to the Library Theatre for one day only, afternoon and evening, July 25th.

The success of the Blue Barron orchestra can be attributed to their splendid arrangements of dance music, their fine instrumental and vocal soloists and the ensemble singing of the band. Barron, who is a past master of the art of giving the public what they want, plays "danceable tempos" with a change of pace that registers with dancers both young and old.

With him are such as Russ Carlisle, Charlie Fischer and Ronnie Snyder, all appearing at the Library Theatre for one day only, Friday, July 25th, afternoon and evening. Don't miss this outstanding stage attraction of the season.

COP HELPS STORK

Philadelphia, July 23—(AP)—Patrolman John Conroy stepped out of his role as policeman and into one as midwife when Mr. and Mrs. John Loughery discovered they couldn't reach the hospital in time. A daughter was born to Mrs. Loughery in an automobile and "it's doing fine," thanks to Patrolman Conroy who attended the mother.

CANDIDATES IN PRIMARY START OPEN CAMPAIGN

Monday of this week having been the last day for filing of petitions by those desiring to be candidates for nomination in the primary election on September 9, the political campaign in the borough and county is getting underway in earnest and the next six weeks will be devoted to rallies and boosting of both parties' selections.

There will be but one candidate for burgess in Warren borough, Raymond W. Steber having announced that he will seek reelection on the Republican ticket.

Tracy M. Greenlund, who is filling an unexpired term as justice of the peace, is a candidate for election this fall and Harry C. Johnson is the Republican choice for the office of tax collector.

Terms of three members of the board of education expire this year and all will seek reelection. They are Robert W. Mackay, Melvin G. Keller and W. Floyd Clinger.

Candidates for other boroughs in the county and for minor offices throughout the county are to be announced within a short time.

Compromise On Extension of Draft Offered

an amendment of this nature.

He hoped to make it possible, the Texas senator told reporters, for national guardsmen and reserves with dependents or business obligations to leave the service, if they felt it was necessary to do so.

The amendment, he added, probably would have to be couched in broad language so that it would apply in all cases where it could be shown that additional service would work undue hardship. He pointed out that while it probably would cover selectees as well as guardsmen and reserves, it would affect them little because such problems were investigated by local boards before they were inducted. The general policy of draft boards has been to defer registrants with dependents.

Meanwhile, it appeared likely that the Senate military committee might approve for Senate consideration a resolution by Senator Thomas (D.-Utah) calling for a congressional declaration of an emergency under which citizen soldiers could be retained in the army's ranks indefinitely.

Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the Democratic leader, said the "trend" appeared to be in the direction of the Thomas resolution, rather than amendment of the Selective Service Act, as first proposed by the War Department.

GIANT PROBLEM

Lancaster, July 23—(AP)—St. Joseph's Hospital had a sizeable problem on its hands when eight-foot, six-inch Willie Camper showed up for treatment—He was too big for the beds. Attendants made Willie comfortable by placing a table at the end of the longest bed. The patient, 18-year-old trouper with a carnival playing here, was treated for a sore leg.

VFW INVITES PRESIDENT

Philadelphia, July 23—(AP)—Officials of the Veterans of Foreign Wars announced they had invited President Roosevelt to speak at their national convention here August 24-29. Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox and Brigadier General Lewis B. Hershey, director of Selective Service, will be on the program, it was announced.

COMMUNITY EXPECTED TO DONATE ABOUT 2,000 POUNDS OF SCRAP ALUMINUM DURING THE CAMPAIGN

The local aluminum collection committee announced today that this community, to contribute its full share toward the national goal of 20,000,000 pounds of scrap aluminum, should donate at least 2,000 pounds in next week's pick-up campaign.

"It is estimated that an average of about 3-4 pound of aluminum will have to be collected from each family to achieve the national goal," said Allan Gibson, local aluminum chairman. "This figure takes into account that only about 75 per cent of the aluminum donated will be usable in national defense production. The balace will be unsuitable and will be removed in the smelting process."

To give local housewives and business places an added incentive to donate every possible aluminum item that they can spare without making replacements, it was revealed that the mayor of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., has issued a challenge to all cities and communities that Mt. Vernon will achieve the highest per family or per capita collection in the United States.

The local committee emphasized that this is the first campaign in which all citizens have been asked to take an active part for national defense production since President Roosevelt's declaration of a full emergency on May 27.

"Only by 100 per cent cooperation of all our citizens can we insure this city's showing in the campaign," said the local chairman. The aluminum pickup here will be Friday and Saturday and all persons are being asked to get their aluminum ready now so that none will be overlooked.

Of course, you do not have to wait for some person to pick up your scrap aluminum donations. Perhaps you would enjoy more taking it to the bin at the north approach of the Hickory strect bridge and toss them upon the heap yourself, as many persons have already done.

The chairman also calls attention to the "Aluminum show" to be staged at the Library Theatre Saturday morning at ten o'clock, when every person from six to sixty will be admitted by presenting a piece of aluminum. Any old pot, pan or piece of aluminum scrap will admit the patron to the playhouse for this particular performance.

It is anticipated that quite a large truck load of aluminum utensils will be secured from this unique entertainment.

TIMES TOPICS

IMPORTANT BROADCAST

He did so well in his first broadcast last week after returning from the Balkan and African war zones that Robert St. John, Associated Press correspondent, is going back on the air tonight. His time will be 6:45 o'clock on NBC-Blue.

MAJOR BOWES BETTER

Major Bowes, recovering from an operation several weeks ago, has left the hospital to recuperate further at his home in Rumson, N. J. No date has been set for the resumption of his CBS program activities, but it is expected it will be at least two weeks and probably longer.

MEETING AT CEMETERY

The meeting of the Maultby Cemetery Association to be held next Sunday morning at ten o'clock will take place at the cemetery instead of at the church, as was stated in yesterday's issue of the Times-Mirror. All persons interested are asked to be present at that hour.

COMMITTEE NAMED

The committee of men named by the administration board of St. Paul's Lutheran church to make plans for observance of the 70th anniversary this fall is busy with details, announcing that the celebration will be held in October, although definite dates have not been established. On this committee are Robert Swanson, Harold Nelson, Richard Osterman, Hilmar Roos and Sam Davis.

IS LT. COMMANDER

Of much interest to the many local friends of Winthrop Slocum, formerly a district manager for the Bell Telephone Company here, is a picture of "Win" in his uniform as lieutenant commander of the United States Navy which appears in the current issue of The Telephone News, house organ of the utility. Mr. Slocum is at present, according to The News, inspecting naval materials at Pittsburgh, where he was transferred from Warren.

V. F. W. BAND TO GIVE PROGRAM THIS EVENING

The first summer concert of the season by the Veteran's of Foreign Wars band of Warren will be given this evening, in front of Warren's municipal building, corner of Third and Hickory streets. The concert will start at 7:30, and will be entirely free to the public.

Under the direction of Leidy Williams, the band has planned an attractive program to open the summer schedule of free entertainment which the band has offered for several years past. Feature number will be in three parts from the suite, Atlantis, by Safranek. This suite is descriptive of the mythical lost continent of that name and the parts to be performed describe the dawning and the morning hymn of praise, a function in the court of Atlantis, and a love duet between two citizens of the country.

The band also will play the well-known Dance of the Serpents by Boccalari, and an overture, Princess of India, by K. L. King, among other numbers. The program likewise will include a generous portion of marches.

The public is cordially invited to attend. Chairs are being provided, and there is also parking space available for early comers to listen from their cars.

Class One railroads in the United States had 1,080,000 employes in mid-April of this year.

DRIVE FOR OLD ALUMINUM OPENS AT YOUNGSVILLE

Youngsville, July 22—The borough truck and Youngsville Boy Scouts were out Monday gathering scrap aluminum about town. A bin to hold the pieces of alminum has been constructed in front of the post office on the pavement.

GOOD ATTENDANCE

There was a large attendance Friday evening at the Townsend meeting held in the American Legion Home. Guests were present from Jamestown, Warren, Busti, Sugar Grove, Starbrick, as well as Youngsville and vicinity.

Mrs. Glen Sitler, Mrs. Ruth Devore and Mrs. Clara Welch, the three delegates from Youngsville at the recent national convention in Buffalo, gave interesting reports of the convention and read a review of the Wheeler-Pepper debate. Luncheon and social time followed the program.

CHURCH PICNIC

The Methodist Sunday school picnic is being held Wednesday at Canadohta Lake. Cars are to leave the church at 1:30 p. m. Those who have cars for transportation are asked to phone M. H. Sellin, who is supervising the transportation. Those attending are asked to bring rolls or sandwiches, table service and a tureen.

U. B. NOTES

A large group of the U. B. missionary group enjoyed the Friday missionary program at Findley Lake.

Thursday evening of this week the local U. B. Men's Brotherhood are attending a banquet at Findley Lake and their wives are planning a picnic at the lake the same evening.

Regular morning and evening services will resume next Sunday, July 27th, in the U. B. church.

'LEST WE FORGET"

(Contributed)

Upholding the high standards set by this community for every national effort, Warren is now engaged in raising its quota for the United Service Organizations for national defense (commonly called the (U. S. O.)

Unlike the separate organizations in 1917-18, this is a coordinated group including the Young Men's Christian Association; the National Catholic Community Service; the Salvation Army; the Young Women's Christian Association; the Jewish Welfare Board; and the National Travelers Aid Association.

The Government cannot finance these organizations which supply the necessary services, because they are private organizations, and must remain so to make their work effective. Theirs is a spiritual as well as a social task; to maintain friendly and wholesome contacts between persons in civilian and military life, to conduct religious services, to furnish counsel and guidance on personal problems, to provide educational, cultural, clubhouse, and information services, and to keep up the morale of thousands of young men living away from home,—many of them for the first time.

Setting forth the needs of the U. S. O. in an address to a New York audience, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., a most outstanding generous contributor of his great wealth to the welfare of mankind, spoke to "fellow parents and neighbors" as a father with a son "in the defense forces of the country". His own son entered the army as a "buck private". In this address, Mr. Rockefeller stated as his "Credo" a few principles of thoughtful living which can well be adapted to the thinking of every person in Warren, as he is asked to do his part in our local effort for the U. S. O.—and as the nation's defense preparations incline us all to ponder seriously our total effectiveness in the world's crisis.

We were so impressed with the words that we reprint them in full as:

"I believe in the supreme worth of the individual and in his right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

"I believe that every right implies a responsibility; every opportunity, an obligation; every possession, a duty.

"I believe that the law was made for man and not man for the law; that government is the servant of the people and not their master.

"I believe in the dignity of labor, whether with head or hand; that the world owes no man a living, but that it owes every man an opportunity to make a living.

"I believe that thrift is essential to well-ordered living and that economy is a prime requisite of a sound financial structure, whether in government, business or personal affairs.

"I believe that truth and justice are fundamental to an enduring social order.

"I believe in the sacredness of a promise, that a man's word should be as good as his bond; that character—not wealth or power or position—is of supreme worth.

"I believe that the rendering of useful service is the common duty of mankind and that only in the purifying fire of sacrifice is the dross of selfishness consumed and the greatness of the human soul set free.

"I believe in an all-wise and all-loving God, named by whatever name, and that the individual's highest fulfillment, greatest happiness and widest usefulness are to be found in living in harmony with His will.

"I believe that love is the greatest thing in the world; that it alone can overcome hate; that right can and will triumph over might."

When Kipling wrote his well-known poem "Recessional" and said in part "If, drunk with sight of power we loose wild tongues that have not Thee in awe",—he never knew that one of our country's richest men would one day say that "these principles which I learned, many of them at my mother's knee—point the way to happiness in life, to courage and peace in death. If they mean to you what they mean to me, they may perhaps be helpful also to our sons for their guidance and inspiration."

Aside to "Community Minded:" We think you have a swell idea and would be glad to give it publicity if you will kindly make yourself known or call and sign the communication!

What goes up must come down—and a Warren man has it figured out that every time taxes take a jump they land on the consumer's neck.

About this time of the year Warren county picnickers discover that a mosquito can make a busy little ant look like a loafer.

• EDSON'S WASHINGTON COLUMN

BY PETER EDSON
Times-Mirror Washington Correspondent

Washington, July 23—One of the most important angles of President Roosevelt's announcement of the Latin American trade blacklist, generally overlooked in the hullabaloo over its sweeping, restrictive and negative provisions, is freeing hemisphere trade by relaxing the controls previously existing on U. S. commerce with Central and South American republics.

It is an intricate and a long story, and many details of its administration have not yet been clarified in Washington. In general, however, by listing specifically the 1800 blocked nationals with whom U. S. firms can no longer do business, the way is cleared for U. S. exporters and importers to trade with all other firms, numbering many times more than the firms now on the blacklist.

Heretofore, there has been considerable confusion about what Latin American firms U. S. Nationals could trade with. There was, for instance, the general teasury order freezing trade with all countries of continental Europe and their nationals all over the world. The order was aimed primarily at Germans and Italians, but it applied also to Spaniards and Portuguese nationals, even though they were doing business in the Argentine or Brazil. What American exporters were up against was an intricate job of research, determining whether their agents in Latin America had any Spanish or Portuguese or Italian or German blood in them. If so, trade with them was not permitted except under special license.

The new blacklist simplifies that rigamarole tremendously and it lifts a lot of bothersome restrictions which had been interfering with the much-desired wartime expansion of inter-American trade. Trade with Latin America is now entirely unrestricted except for the 1800 firms on the blacklist and for those few essential defense items on which there is U. S. export control. It no longer makes any difference whether a firm in Latin America is controlled by Spaniards or Portuguese—or even Dutchmen or Frenchmen. If their names are not on the blacklist, it's okay to go ahead and do business with them.

To legalize this trade, Treasury has issued a general license permitting all such transactions without the previously required specific license. This license applies to everything except purely financial transactions, such as transfer of funds. The purpose of this remaining restriction is to keep a check on foreign exchange transactions and prevent a leak of foreign nationals' assets back to Europe.

Under certain conditions, trade may even be permitted with firms on the blacklist, but only under temporary license. Transactions not yet completed, contracts which have only a short time to run, and emergency transactions may be given license for limited operations. In general, the lid is to be kept on tight and trade prohibited with any firm on the list, though the list itself can be changed by additions or removals.

To show how the new blacklist regulations operate, take the example of a firm which has for many years been selling its goods to South America through a German company now on the blacklist. Finding that it can no longer do

New Caledonia Gains Strategic Importance

UNTIL German panzer units smashed France last year, New Caledonia was merely a French island, 700 miles off the northeast coast of Australia, 248 miles long by 30 miles wide, populated by some 60,000 people, mostly Negroes.

But the fall of France gave New Caledonia a strategic importance. It is rich in vital war minerals—nickel, chrome and iron. Japan is eyeing the island, well aware of its proximity to Australia—only five hours flying time.

There have been reports of Japanese military and commercial infiltration. New Caledonia would make a splendid naval base and with Vichy apparently controlled by the axis, anything can happen.

This stamp, one of the series in 1928, shows a landscape scene in the island. There are mountain ranges encircling the capital of Noumea. Here hibiscus, crotons, poincianas, lantanas and guava bushes grow in abundance.

Noumea is also the site of the nickel works of New Caledonia.

The citizens are anti-Petain, pro-De Gaulle. They wanted to send an expeditionary force of 500 to fight the Germans in France, but the British command prevailed upon them to keep the men at home for island defense.

A Washington Daybook

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — Stories about "trailer towns" have been popping up for years, but the Farm Security Administration has ticked off the greatest story of them all. It's connected with national defense.

Let's go back to the days of the "Okies," when FSA was under the guns and trying to provide "temporary shelter" for the migrant workers flowing back and forth across the land. The trailer offered a quick solution and, in a comparatively small way, it was put to use.

The problem had hardly been gotten in hand when along came national defense. Boom towns appeared overnight. There was no chance to provide adequate housing. Congress, in desperation, appropriated $300,000,000 for defense housing. Some of the problems could be solved by so-called "low cost housing projects," developed over a period of months.

But one problem was a stumper—the "stop-gap housing," or temporary shelter—which would take care of a rapid influx of workers in communities totally unprepared to house even a 10 per cent increase in population—much less the two, three or four hundred per cent increases that did result in some communities.

All Output Absorbed

THE government turned to the only agency that had had any experience in this problem and FSA went all out for "mobile housing."

This "mobile housing" has resulted in a phase of living which may hang on for many years. In an even dozen defense areas, FSA now has 3,194 trailers, housing from two to five persons, at rentals of from $6 to $6.50 a week. Not only is the total output of the trailer industry completely absorbed now, but, according to estimates here, the output for the next six months is wholly contracted.

At the moment, there are camps of 200 or more trailers at Baltimore; Erie, Pa.; Ravenna, Ohio; Burlington, Iowa; Kingsbury-LaPorte, Ind.; Jacksonville, and Wilmington, N. C.; Nashville, Tenn.; and San Diego; and smaller camps at Paso Robles and Benicia, Calif.; and Bethlehem, Pa.

Built in units around service buildings, these trailer camps closely resemble the trailer towns that follow the seasonal migrations along the two coasts. There is, however, one important difference. National defense trailers do not have to be always on the go. They might settle down in a community for a year or so until their wheels are hub deep in the soil.

Have To Be Costly

THIS is a vital difference and behind it lies the story of why the trailer industry, booming five or six years ago, was caught short when the government went into the trailer market. Safe trailers cost money—big money. If they are going to be yanked all over the land from border to border, they have to be on sturdy frames. If they are going to be occupied in winter and summer, they have to be built like permanent homes. Such trailers—luxury homes, in a sense—never could be built to supply only migratory workers' incomes. Thus, the recession of 1937 played hobb with the trailer industry and when the government went into the market with a wholesale demand, it found a very low supply.

Under the impetus of government demand, the trailer business is booming again, but whether it will last is another problem. "Stop gap" housing is just what the name implies and it doesn't last forever. Better methods catch up with it and make it obsolete.

Day after tomorrow, with low-cost, prefabricated housing supplanting the stop-gaps, the story of trailer towns of from 1,000 to 2,000 persons may be merely something with which bearded grandpas will bore or delight the children.

BY WILLIAM E. McKENNEY
America's Card Authority

A correspondent who wishes his name withheld sends me today's hand, which he witnessed in a rubber game at a social club. Here is a once-in-a lifetime hand with a vengeance!

The bidding proceeded normally until South got the notion of trying for slam. He thought he might be misunderstood if he made a conventional bid of four no trump, to start slam bidding, since the partners had already agreed on no trump as the proper contract.

So he tried a kind of asking bid in spades, expecting that at worst his partner would go back to four no trump and the spade bid might then operate to discourage what looked from his hand like the most dangerous opening lead.

But North passed and East could not resist doubling. South, still trusting his partner, passed to leave the decision to North. North evidently not understanding the situation passed, and there was South playing four spades with only three small spades in each hand.

But the pattern of split hands, 4-3-3-3, all around the table came to his rescue. He was able to cash three tricks in each side suit, without having any round ruffed.

Dummy was left in the lead to play the fourth diamond, and now East could not prevent the jack of spades from making for the tenth trick. Of course East blamed his partner for not opening a trump. But how could West guess the fantastic situation?

WARREN NATIVE IS ASSIGNED TO KGEI ON COAST

A special news dispatch from Schenectady, N. Y., reports that Merrill Cochran Phillips, for two years associated with the General Electric Company broadcasting in that city, will be transferred August 1 to the Pacific Coast, where he will be assistant manager of KGEI, the company's international short-wave radio station in San Francisco.

Mr. Phillips is the grandson of Mrs. J. B. Cochran, of Fifth avenue, and nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Ostergard, 105 Roy street.

Appointment of Mr. Phillips, announced by R. S. Peare, G-E manager of broadcasting, is in line with a general increase in the personnel of KGEI to handle the heavy work resulting from a recent increase of the station's power from 20 to 50 kilowatts. In his new position he also will be assistant to E. T. B. Harris, manager of KGEI.

Mr. Phillips, native of Warren and a graduate of Colgate University and the National Institute of Public Affairs in Washington, D. C., has worked with G. Emerson Markham on the WGY Farm Paper of the Air, the WGY Farm Forum and the G-E Science Forum. In addition to writing continuity for these programs, he has assisted Mr. Markham in the scheduling of speakers and in acting as master of ceremonies on the farm and science broadcasts.

The English language short-wave version of the Science Forum over WGEO and WGEA, the company's short-wave stations, has been handled entirely by Mr. Phillips since his affiliation with General Electric, and his "Consumer Information" program has been heard weekly over WGY for more than a year. Mr. Phillips has also done considerable dramatic work over the air on WGEO and WGEA, as well as on W2XOY and W2XB, G-E frequency modulation and television stations respectively.

KGEI, which opened in 1939 on "Treasure Island" during the Golden Gate International Exposition, recently transferred its studios to the Fairmount Hotel in San Francisco. The new 50,000-watt transmitters are housed in a new building constructed for that purpose in Belmont, Calif.

business with its old agent, the U. S. firm is immediately confronted with the problem of finding a new outlet.

If the U. S. firm is small and cannot afford the expense of sending an executive to South America to investigate and sign up a new agent, it can get assistance through the commercial intelligence office in the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, U. S. Department of Commerce. This office has compiled a list of hundreds of thousands of firms all over the world.

These firms are rated, in a kind of international Dunn and Bradstreet listing, and their credit, reputation and general business rating are appraised, as well as the types of products which they handle and their other connections are cataloged. It is from this master index that American business men can get leads on new connections.

U. S. consular agents in the foreign service of the Department of State are equipped to carry through further in establishing new contacts and agencies for American exporters. In general, all the field work in the other American republic will be handled by the consular service.

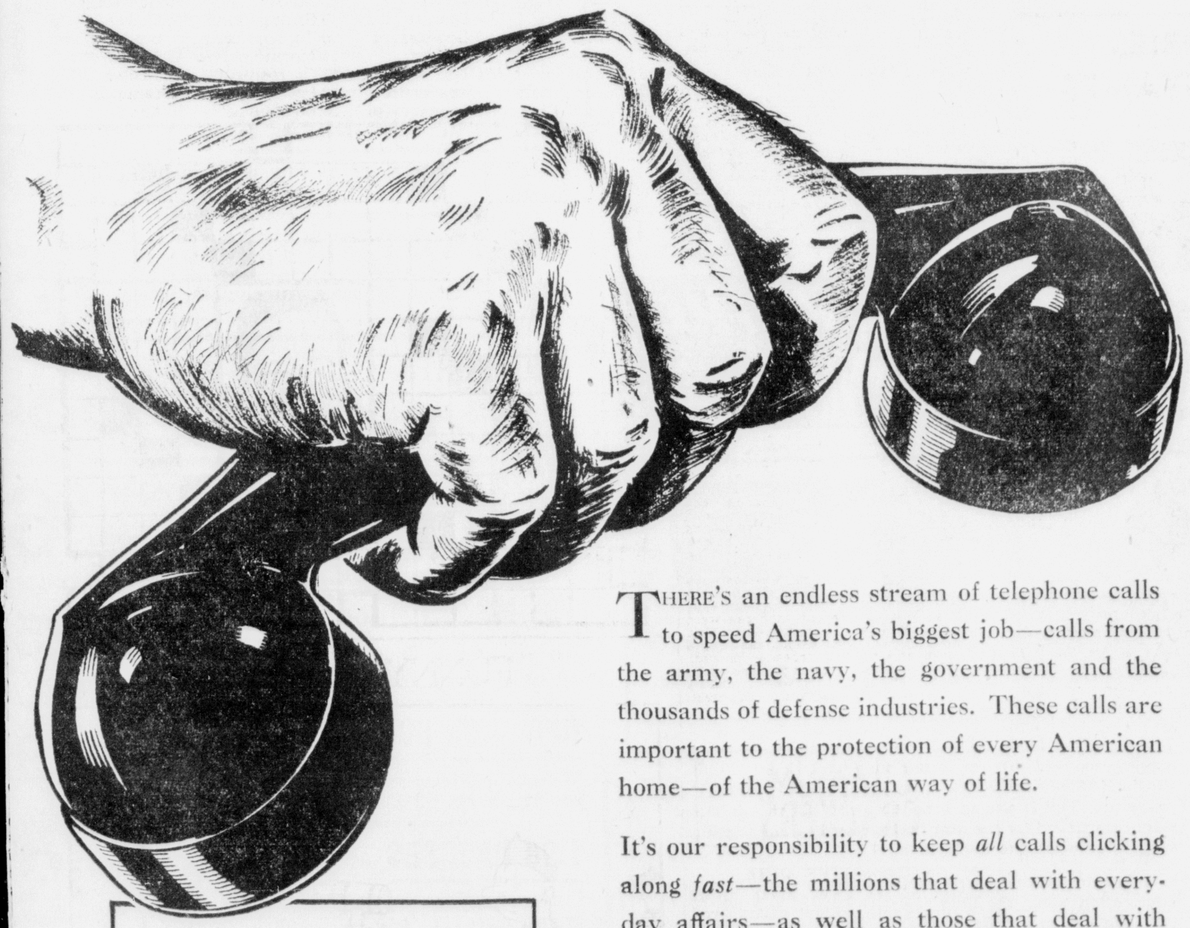
SPEEDING THE SERVICE THAT SPEEDS DEFENSE



THERE'S an endless stream of telephone calls to speed America's biggest job—calls from the army, the navy, the government and the thousands of defense industries. These calls are important to the protection of every American home—of the American way of life.

It's our responsibility to keep all calls clicking along fast—the millions that deal with everyday affairs—as well as those that deal with national defense.

Your cooperation will speed the service that speeds defense. We list a few things you can do—things which will mean better service all around. Suppose they save on the average only a second on each call. Today we're handling 6,800,000 calls a day in Pennsylvania. That would mean 6,800,000 seconds—or almost 19,000 hours of telephone time saved each day!

1. Don't trust to memory or to old lists for telephone numbers. It's best to look in the directory and make sure.

2. Answer the telephone promptly.

3. When you make a call, give the called party enough time to answer before you "hang up."

4. Try to avoid unnecessarily long conversations, especially if you are on a party line.

5. Be sure to hang up the instrument after every call. Failure to do so means your line is "busy"—though it may be doing nothing!

Thank you!

American Legion Auxiliary Enjoys Outdoor Dinner, Followed by Important Business Meet

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary enjoyed a delightful tureen dinner on the lawn at the Legion Home last evening in conjunction with the only July business session. A lovely crystal bowl of gladioli and asters centered the table.

During a brief executive meeting which followed, the women voted to completely redecorate and furnish a small reception room on the first floor at the home.

The regular business session followed, with discussion of several important items. It was announced that there will be but one meeting in August, also details to be made known later. It was voted to make a contribution to the United Service Odganizations Fund and to purchase material for making of caps and capes for the Junior Auxiliary.

A letter of grateful acknowledgement was read from Miss Julia Heibel, superintendent of the Hoffman Home, in regard to the American flag given by the auxiliary to the children's home on July 3 and dedicated with proper ceremonies on Independence Day.

Mrs. Elmer Munksgard, chairman of juniors, reported on her trip to the Keystone Girls' Camp at Grier School in Birmingham, Pa., where the auxiliary is sponsoring two local juniors. The girls, Miss Dorothy Munksgard, president, and Miss Patsy Chester, will return today from the camp, where 120 girls from all over the state have been assembled for a two-week period.

The coming state convention at Altoona, on August 14, 15 and 16, were discussed and the following signified their intention of attending sessions: Mrs. Larry Krespan, president; Mrs. Fred Siggins, assistant secretary; Mrs. Melvin Johnon, treasurer; Mrs. Elmer Munksgard, junior chairman; Mrs. C. D. Cannon, president-elect; Mrs. John Mead, who served as a World War nurse. There may be others from here attending, also.

Final Special Event At the Conservatory

The final special recital of the season was given at the Warren Conservatory of Music concert hall last evening, when Mrs. Alfred J. Mooney presented Jeanne Clark and Barbara Thompson, pianists.

They were assisted in their joint recital by Joyce Ramsdell, soprano, who is a pupil of Eugene Kuester in the voice department.

The young instrumentalists showed splendid technique and a grasp of musical values which promises well for their future progress. Their portion of the program was brought to a very pleasing conclusion with a two-piano selection, "At Evening," by N. Louise Wright.

Miss Ramsdell displayed a lovely lyric voice of fine texture, which she used to excellent advantage in a group of attractive songs by Ronald, Arnaud and Friml. Edith Haines Kuester was at the piano for artistic accompaniment of the vocalist.

New York Takes Eight Game Lead With Win Over Tribe

Donald Tosses Win for Bombers; Cards Tied With Flatbush

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sometimes in baseball a pitch- gets the "number" of a rival club—and the one Atley Don- of the New York Yankees has the Cleveland Indians has oved immensely important.

Donald is a 28-year-old south- boy who never is mentioned the same breath with the bet- pitchers of the American ague although in 1939 he set a ajor league record for rookies by nning 12 consecutive games. A e arm stopped him and he has en a so-so pitcher ever since ainst everybody, that is, but the ians.

He has won five contests this ar, three of them over Cleve- nd. Two of the three were ainst Bob Feller, the league's e hurler.

Yesterday Donald led the Yanks a 4-3 decision that turned the nnant race into a virtual run- ay, giving the Yanks their 35th tory in 41 tilts and an eight- me grip on first place.

The sturdy righthander held the dians to six hits. The score uldn't have been close except r Clarence (Soup) Campbell, a eveland rookie, who hit a dou- and a home run.

Feller, trying for his 20th vic- y before 45,000 fans, held the nks to seven hits. But six of ese were bunched in the first ur frames and were interspersed th walks. The blows included a me run by Joe Gordon and time- doubles by Charley Keller and e DiMaggio, who now has hit in e straight encounters since his -game streak was snapped.

While the Yanks were blowing e lid off the American League mpetition, leaders in the Na- nal League managed to tie emselves into another knot.

The Brooklyn Dodgers carried a lead into the ninth inning and en lost a 5-4 decision to the Cin- nati Reds in a big rally cen- red around Chuck Aleno's pinch- ple with the bases loaded. icky Walters, who had held the dgers to eight hits, drove in e deciding run with a fly to nter.

It was the fifth defeat in six ntests for the skidding Dodgers d when the St. Louis Cardinals wned the New York Giants, 7-6. e National League lead revert- to a tie between Brooklyn and Louis.

The Cards crowded six runs in- one rollicking inning, the urth, to beat the Giants. Enos aughter hit a home run, Estel abtree singled with the bases aded and Johnny Hopp tripled th two on. The defeat also opped the Giants out of third ace and let in Cincinnati.

All of the games yesterday were on by the home teams, five of em by one run.

Pittsburgh beat the Phillies, 4-3, a tilt in which both starting tchers lasted only one inning d in which all the scoring was mpleted by the third.

The Chicago Cubs crushed the oston Braves, 13-2, with a 16- bombardment. Bill Nicholson ove in three runs with his 18th me run and a double and Dom allessandro batted in four with a uble and two singles. By the nth inning Manager Jim Wilson ok out his pitcher, Bill Lee, just let him rest. He had been on se four times.

The Boston Red Sox licked the icago White Sox, 6-2, with Heb- (Dick) Newsome outpitching hn Rigney for his 11th victory. nong Boston's seven hits were mers by Ted Williams, Jim Ta- r and Jim Foxx. Newsome al- ved six hits.

The Philadelphia Athletics eas- whipped the St. Louis Browns, 1, with Jack Knott pitching five- t ball.

The Washington Senators stop- ped the Detroit Tigers, 5-4, on the steady eight-hit hurling of Sid Hudson.

More airplanes for civilian use were produced in the United States in 1940 than 1932, 1933, 1934 and 1935. Approximately 6870 civil planes were built last year, an all time record for any single country for one year.

BOYS' CLUB IN WIN OVER ELKS BY 11-3 SCORE

In one of the finest pitching exhibitions that has been part of the City League softball program this year, fifteen-year-old Vito Greto last night scored a triumph for the St. Joseph's Boys Club over the Elks by a score of 11 to 3.

The youngster was slightly nervous for the first few innings and he allowed a dozen walks, but the opposition couldn't hit him. The first two Elks' runs were a result of Greto's loading the bases by giving batters free tickets and then passing a fourth man to force a run home.

However, the amazing feat last night was the fact that Greto tossed six innings of ball without giving up a single hit, and then the Elks hit twice in the seventh and once in both the eighth and ninth cantos.

Earl Dorrance started on the rubber for the Elks last night, but three home runs in the first inning, the first one combining with two errors for three runs, got him off to a bad start. Manager "Jiggs" Bonavita, of the Boys' Club, teed off first in the initial stanza, and then "Honey" Font and Bob Miller, who followed Jiggs in that order at bat, both punched the pill for a round trip.

Harry Christensen tossed for the Elks from the fifth inning on, and silenced the winners' bats to only five hits and two runs.

Tonight the Elks meet the K. of C. in another important game. If the Caseys win they'll be tied for the league lead in the second half title chase; if the Elks win they'll be back in the running, at least, for the championship.

Last Night's Bouts

By the Associated Press

New York—Melio Bettina, 186½, Beacon, N. Y., outpointed Clarence (Red) Burman, 189½, Baltimore (10); Pat Comiskey, 214, Paterson, N. J. defeated Henry Cooper, 191½, Brooklyn N. Y (10); Lee Savold, 188½, Des Moines, Iowa, outpointed Solly Krieger, 180, Brooklyn, N. Y. (10).

New York—Jommy Garrison, 141½, Hollywood, Calif., scored technical K. O. over Georgie Martin, 144½, Boston (3).

It Could Happen Only in Brooklyn

Pint-sized elderly fan gives George Barr piece of his mind as umpire orders him off Ebbets Field diamond. Customer leaped over the box rail to grab Plate Umpire Lou Jorda's coat after Manager Frank Frisch and Bob Elliott of the Pirates were ejected for complaining about a called strike. Cops escorted the interloper to the nearest exit. He no doubt is a Pittsburgh rooter who contracted fever in Brooklyn.

Sports Round-up

BY EDDIE BRIETZ

New York, July 23—National Open Champ Craig Wood goes back today to the old home town, Lake Placid, N. Y., to team up with his brother, Scott, in an exhibition golf match. . . . They say Craig has cleaned up about five grand since the doings last month at Fort Worth. . . . From this distance it looks like Turkey Thompson over Bob Pastor tonight at Los Angeles and Tony Zale to teach Ossie Harris a lesson at Chicago. . . . Aluminum collectors calling at Ebbets Field Monday were referred to the umpires' dressing room by Frankie Frisch. . . . Jimmy McLarnin is about to desert Hollywood and build a home at Oakland. . . . New York fight managers are warring among themselves over Anton Christoforidi's, whose contract with Lew Burston expires next month and probably will not be renewed.

Remember the Name

From a soft (we hope) spot way out there at the end of the limb, our old pal, Charlie Johnson of the Minneapolis Star-Journal, broadcasts—"Bruce Smith (Minnesota back) undoubtedly will be the best individual gridiron performer of the entire country this year."

The Bad Humor Man

Southern Association sports scribes are blasting Ray Blades, New Orleans manager, for acting up when they go to the dressing room to get the lineups before the game. One Atlanta scribe was tossed out on his ear. . . . Judge Landis, who can't see a thing without his specs, found himself in a picklement at the American Association all-star dinner. There he was with a plate full of fried chicken, et cet, and unable to feed himself because he had left his glasses in his room. The judge borrowed a pair from Burt Shotton, Columbus manager, and pitched in. . . . Mike Jacobs couldn't get a $10,000 offer for the Joe Louis-Buddy Baer fight films, but they have made $100,000. Conn-Louis pictures will gross around $300,000. . . Will Gahagan, veteran trotting horse official, is well on the road to recovery in a Toledo hospital, but he'll have to miss the Hambletonian for the first time in the race's history.

Odditorium

By a strange quirk of circumstance Jake Atz, Sr., and Jake Atz, Jr., both manage ball clubs called the "twins". . . . Jake, Jr., is at Texarkana in the Cotton States loop and his pop is at Winston-Salem in the Piedmont. . . . P. S.: Both clubs are in seventh place.

Today's Guest Star

C. M. Gibbs, Baltimore Sun: "Chet Kehn and Ed Head, the Montreal pitchers are tied with 13 wins apiece, but Ed is still a Head." (Hurry with that hypo, Watson.)

He Should Worry

It was a break when Catcher Millies

Was let out by the hapless Phillies.

Missing Persons Dept.

Rudolph Hess now pitches for the Bronx (NY) semi-pro Giants.

Reports compiled by the Civil Aeronautics Administration show that persons participating in civilian aviation have increased more than double over previous years.

ZALE TO FIGHT

Chicago, July 23.—(AP)—Tony Zale, recognized as the middleweight champion by the National Boxing Association, will return to the ring wars tonight in a 10-round non-title fight with Ossie Harris, Pittsburgh Negro.

Zale scored a second-round knockout of former Champion Al Hostak of Seattle his last time out.

Yesterday's Stars

By the Associated Press

Atley Donald, Yankees—Held Indians to six hits in winning pitching duel from Bob Feller.

Bill Nicholson, Cubs—Drove in three runs with 18th homer and double against Braves.

Jack Knott, Athletics—Stopped Browns with five-hit hurling.

Estel Crabtree, Cardinals—Singled with bases loaded at height of six-run rally that beat Giants.

Bob Klinger, Pirates—Held Phillies to six hits in eight innings to get credit for victory.

BETTINA BEATS BURMAN IN TEN ROUND BATTLE

By SID FEDER

Brooklyn, July 23.—(AP)—The southpaw style of Melio Bettina was too puzzling for Red Burman to solve last night and the former light heavyweight champion punched out a ten-round decision over the Baltimore redhead before a crowd of 10,167 in Ebbets Field. Bettina weighed 186 1-4; Burman, 189 1-2.

In this home ball park of the Brooklyn Dodgers, where just about everything happens, just about everything did in this tough tussle.

There was one moment in the fourth round, when both fighters fell out of the ring. There was another, in the eighth, when Burman, unable to do anything using an orthodox stance, switched to a southpaw style and for a couple of minutes had Melio on the run.

And finally, you had the somewhat startling picture of Burman, whose chin Louis couldn't dent with his Sunday shots, twice being staggered by Bettina's left hand pokes, which hitherto never had been regarded as needing a sign warning the unwary of high explosive content.

All in all, however, it was an important, and upset triumph for the determined little Italian from Beacon, N. Y., who quit the light-heavyweight ranks nearly a year ago to campaign among the big boys.

The Associated Press score card gave Melio eight rounds and Burman two.

Old Timers Await Saturday Eve. Tilt

Interest again is being focused on Saturday night when the old-timers of Jamestown and Warren will meet at Civic Stadium in Jamestown to play a benefit game for the Stacey Ross Memorial Fund.

The contest, postponed from last week because of rain, will start at 7:30 p. m DST., as it was scheduled last week.

The remainder of the program will not be changed and while it is not definite that all of the Warren players will make a second trip to the hiltop, it is expected that Manager Roy Pearce will have around twenty men on the roster ready for action.

SPORT SPATTERINGS

CLEANING UP THE DESK

Down the middle . . . It's never too late to break into the big leagues, and though many fans may not have realized it, The Boston Red Sox's new pitching wonder, Dick Newsome, was 31 when he got his chance this year . . . He's won ten games . . . Here's a record DiMaggio set that few people know about . . . In addition to hitting in 56 consecutive games for a new mark, Joe went 33 contests without fanning the breezes . . . From June 8, until his consecutive hitting spree was ended, Di Mag batted 128 times without letting the third strike get by unmolested . . . And it was seldom pitchers got as far as throwing a pitch that might have been that third strike . . . At the present time, the St. Louis Cardinals are playing the best ball in the senior circuit, and who but the Pittsburgh Pirates are a close second! . . . And in the American loop, it's no mystery that no team has been matching the Pride of the Bronx . . . The Yankees have been commanding their circuit since June 29, and in less than a month have won enough ball games to give themselves a higher won-loss percentage than the Dodgers hold in the National . . . First time this year, since the first few weeks, that the American Leaguers have done this . . .

The St. Louis Cardinals are going to have another pitching star with them by next season, at least according to present reports . . . He's Howard Pollett, Houston's left-handed boy wonder. . . And Virgil Trucks, now tossing them for Buffalo, and a real strikeout artist, may be in a Detroit Tiger uniform in '42 . . . Pitcher Bob Bowman, of the New York Giants, was once a bat boy for his home town baseball team at Keystone, W. Va. . . . There's the story around about a Brooklyn newspaper publishing an editorial urging that the National League end of the world series be played at Ebbets Field and not moved to Yankee Stadium, regardless of gate receipts or room for customers . . . But what is worrying Larry MacPhail more at the moment is the National League end of the series being shifted to St. Louis! Ah, these aluminum campaigns! . . . In Shreveport, Ala. Monday night Mrs. George Roby went to the ball game at the Texas League park . . . When she returned to her automobile two aluminum hub caps were missing . . . Admission to the game was scrap aluminum! . . .

Jimmy Johnston, fight manager who pilots Bob Pastor and Abe Simon, picks Jack Johnson, Gene Tunney, and Joe Louis as the three greatest heavy champs of all time . . . There have only been two Negro titlists, Johnson and Louis, and they both were so outstanding that Johnson may have them in just about the right spot . . . Pete Reiser has a cheering gallery any time he wishes by just inviting his brothers and sisters to a ball game . . . He has five sisters and two brothers . . . Benny McCoy and his draft board have had so much trouble as to whether or not Benny should join his Uncle Samuel, that they're going to let President Roosevelt decide the matter if he will . . . Up to now, Bobby Feller has beaten every team in the league at least once, except the Chicago White Sox . . . Long ago, in Clarendon, Texas, a baseball game was played that ended with one pitch . . . Giles and Clarendon were playing and the first batter for Giles hit the first pitch into a mesquite patch . . . From there it rolled down a prairie dog hole . . . The umpire hollered, "Play ball!" . . . But they couldn't play ball and Giles won the game 1-0 because that was the only "apple" and the nearest baseball was forty miles away!

SECOND ROUND TODAY OF SEMI-PRO TOURNEY

Vandergrift, Pa., July 23.—(AP)—The state semi-pro baseball tournament moved into the second round today with ten of the survivors scheduled to clash today in five contests.

In winding up the first round yesterday the Brackenridge S. W. O. C. beat New Freedom 9 to 7, with Goldberg hitting a homer for the victors and Shoff one for the losers. The Vandergrift Redbirds walloped the Vandergrift Grays 9 to 2 and Lower Burrell beat Leechburg Marconi 4 to 0.

Today's games:
Elkland vs Swissvale; Greensboro Warwicks vs. Nemacolin; Lower Burrell vs. Vandergrift Redbirds; Greensburg Walworth vs Freeport Merchants and Ford City vs Brackenridge SWOC.

feurs, road workers, salesmen, and laborers, were taken into defense industries as inspectors, drill press and machine operators, civil service workers and assembly men.

In the past month, according to Dr. Bird, more than 300 of the students have qualified for the United States civil service and many of these have been placed in arsenals, at airports, and in similar government positions.

Combined value of all types of incubators manufactured in U. S. factories during the decade beginning with 1930 was $22,212,000, according to Census Bureau records.

SCRANTON OBSERVES 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Scranton, July 23—(AP)—An eight-day celebration marking the 100th anniversary of the founding of Scranton and the 75th year of the city's incorporation was formally opened today when Mayor Fred J. Huester grected hundreds of former residents who have returned for the event. A holiday spirit prevailed and miles of streets and hundreds of buildings were decorated for the occasion.

Parades, music festivals, patriotic spectacles, luncheons, banquets, a coronation ball at which the young women selected as queens of Scranton and Lackawanna county will be crowned; the official opening of Pennsylvania's first traffic circles and a score of other highlights got underway at a luncheon at which Worthington Scranton, grandson of the city's founder and general chairman of the committee that arranged the diamond jubilee centennial program, presided.

Flames Sweeping Moscow

(From Page One)

German press dispatches reported the destruction of 92 Russian tanks in a battle south of Kiev, the Urkraine capital, yesterday, and DNB, the official German news agency, asserted that Nazi and Finnish troops had knifed deep into Russian lines on the northern front, east of Lake Ladoga.

"In the Ukraine," the Nazi high command said, "German, Rumanian, Hungarian and Slovak troops are continuing their pursuit untiringly"—in a drive toward Kiev.

"On other parts of the eastern front, enveloping and annihilation of small and big Soviet groups continue."

The German communique said that bombs of the heaviest caliber and showers of incendiaries inflicted "serious destruction" in last night's dusk-to-dawn attack on Moscow, and that fires set the night before were still raging out of control.

By contrast, the Russians officially declared that the raid was a fizzle, with most of the luftwaffe beaten off and 10 per cent of them shot down.

Amid conflicting reports from Moscow and Berlin on the land fighting, the Germans declared that Nazi legions had scored important gains on the central front, storming key defenses of Polotsk in a violent 2-day offensive with grenades and flame-throwers. Red army troops were reported wiped out by the tens of thousands as they fought to the death from shell-smashed bunkers.

Polotsk lies 140 miles northwest of the vital Smolensk sector.

The Russians acknowledged German-Finnish penerations on the northern front and a deepening Nazi thrust into the Ukraine, but declared fighting continued yesterday on the same shell-torn central front with the Nazi onslaught still checked.

First German reports described the second overnight raid on Moscow as turning mid-city areas into a sea of flames, with heavy hits around the Kremlin and Red Square and fires touched off in the government building district to the east.

The Russians said dozens were killed and wounded and some fires were started, but no military objectives were hit. They reported 15 of 150 raiders downed, compared with 22 of more than 200 shot out of the sky the night before, and declared only a few raiders got through the searchlight patterns and thundering barrages.

The Red army declared heavy fighting continued yesterday on the central front of Porkhov and Smolensk and in two new sectors—Petrozavodsk and Zhitomir. Petrozavodskk, 250 miles north of Leningrad, is on the vital rail line north to Murmansk, ice-free Arctic port.

Shitomir, 50 miles closer to Kiev than Novograd Volynski, where fighting has been mentioned previously is 85 miles from the Ukraine capital.

Washington, London Watch Critical Far Eastern Situation

(From Page One)

Sydney said Britain, the United States, the Dutch East Indies and Australia were fully aware of the threatened danger and had engaged in "the fullest consultations" on problems of defense.

In Washington, President Roosevelt took occasion at his press conference yesterday to disclose a navy report that Toyko had clamped a censorship on both radio and cable. He answered affirmatively when asked if he considered this action significant.

From Toyko the Japanese news agency Domei, however, broadcast a statement by "authoritative sources" admitting that restrictions had been imposed on the use of foreign languages in outgoing telegrams and in telephone talks but denying that any new censorship had been imposed.

The Japanese government announced July 14 that henceforth telegrams could be sent abroad only in Japanese or German, that messages in code must be accompanied by a translation and that all messages must be signed.

Far ..ast experts expressed the opinion that Japan's reported new demands on Indo-China were based on Tokyo's determination to get within striking distance of the rich Dutch East Indies and Britain's strategic Singapore naval base.

Should France's Nazi-dominated government at Vichy fail to capitulate quickly, these experts said, Japan could be expected to open an immediate offensive against Indo-China.

Dispatches from Vichy said it was likely that France and Japan might reach an understanding for the technical "protection" of French Indo-China by the Japanese. In this connection, it was recalled that the Japanese press has published assertions that the Chinese, the British and Gen. Charles De Gaulle's Free French forces were preparing to invade Indo-China.

Conferences between Admiral Jean Decoux, governor-general of Indi-China, and Major General Rashiro Sumita, head of the Japanese military mission stationed in the French colony, continued at Hanoi. Official silence heightened the belief in some quarters that Sumita was presenting new demands.

Reports from Shanghai said that Japanese troops, planes and ships were massed at Hainan, an island off the south China coast opposite Indo-China, for the expected move into the French colony, and that Japanese fleet transports were standing by near the mouth of the Pearle river.

Peiping dispatches said there was a growing belief that Japan's armies in North China and Manchoukuo were in the midst of important shifts. Well-grounded reports said 20 troop-laden Japanese trains had been moving north in the past few days, possibly headed for the port of Chinwangtao, where they could embark for a movement southward.

LARGE INCREASE IN STEEL MANUFACTURE

New York, July 23.—(AP)—The magazine "Iron Age" said today "heavy pressure for steel to be used in building the two-ocean navy and in completing other projects under the vast national defense program this week brought out details of the large increase in capacity planned for Carnegie Illinois Steel Corp's Homestead, Pa., plant.

"Ingot capacity at Homestead and at the nearby Duquesne, Pa., plant of Carnegie-Illinois will be lifted by 1,800,000 tons through the construction of 12 open hearth furnaces of 200 tons capacity each and of two electric furnaces with an annual output of 100,000 tons. xxx The project will lift steel capacity of the Pittsburgh district by almost 10 per cent."

URGES SCRAP STEEL BE COLLECTED NEXT

Washington, July 23—(AP)—Senator James J. Davis, Republican, of Pittsburgh, suggested today a nationwide collection of steel scrap.

It would help defense needs in the metal industries, he said, and the funds acquired through the collection could be used for the welfare of the armed forces.

In a letter to Mayor LaGuardia, director of civilian defense, Davis said: "An organized collection of steel scrap for welfare purposes would, in my opinion, result in an increased flow of scrap and a benefit to the agencies participating in these efforts.

Predicts Military Activity

isa Buro Nomura, is an infrequent caller at the state department and his visit today was linked with widespread reports of Japanese preparations for some military stroke.

Welles was expected to ask Admiral Nomura to clarify Japanese intentions, making it clear at the same time that the United States was vitally interested in maintenance of the peace in the Pacific.

Washington, July 23.— (AP) — Some far eastern experts expressed the view today that underlying Japan's record new demands on Indi-China was a Tokyo determination to place Japanese forces in easy striking distance of the rich Dutch East Indies and Britain's strategic Singapore naval base.

These authorities, declining to be quoted by name, said the demands undoubtedly called for virtual Japanese domination of France's Far Eastern possession. Should Vichy fail to capitulate quickly, they added, the Japanese could be expected to open an immediate offensive against Indo-China in anticipation of a speedy conquest.

Press dispatches from Vichy were confined to a bare statement that the French and Japanese governments were negotiating in regard to Indo-China. In London authorized sources said reports of the demands were disturbing to the British in view of Japanese assurances a month ago that Japan had no territorial demands in Indo-China.

American officials were watching the situation intently. President Roosevelt took occasion at his press conference yesterday to disclose a navy report that Tokyo had imposed a censorship on both radio and cable. He answered affirmatively when asked whether he considered this action significant.

REFUSE REQUEST TO END INVESTIGATION

Washington, July 23—(AP)—The Federal Communications Commission refused today a request of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association to terminate its investigation of newspaper ownership of radio stations stating brusquely that the petition could not be considered seriously.

After releasing this formal decision, the commission proceeded to open its inquiry with a statement from Chairman James L. Fly on the background of newspaper-in-radio.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, July 23—(AP)—Wheat prices declined almost a cent in early trading today reflecting weakness of cotton and lagging flour demand. Opening ⅞ to ⅞ lower, July 1.01-1.00⅞, Sept. 1.03⅝-¼, wheat later held near this range. Corn started unchanged to ⅜ lower, July 72⅝, Sept 74⅝.

Students Learning to Fly Here

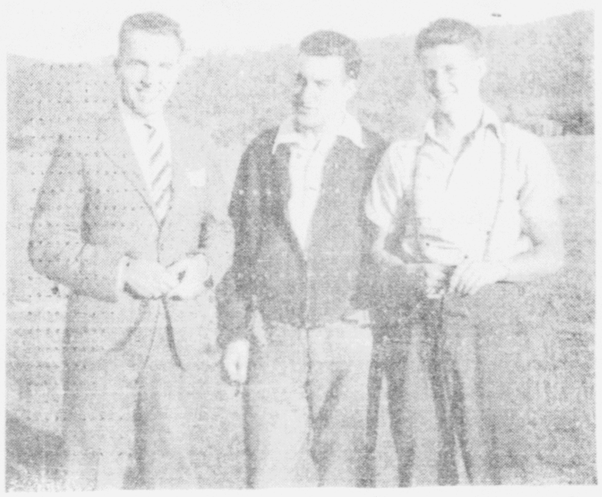
Jim Miller Jess Perry Bob Branstrom



J. R. Thompson Bob Hines John Myers

Those shown are Robert Branstrom, of Russell; Jess Perry, of Clarendon; J. R. Thompson, of Erie; Robert Hines, Mt. Jewett; John Myers, Kane; James Miller, Evald Benson and Robert Lesser, Warren.

Lesser's big smile is due to the fact that he had just soloed before the picture was taken. These students are a mighty fine group and all soloed in the minimum allowable time and averaged 90 per cent in their ground school grades.

The instructors of the King Air Service and all interested in the local airport are proud of the ability of these boys to fly in all kinds of wind and weather. Their experience is limited yet, but they are doing a fine job. It is this type of young man that makes a real pilot, it was stated.

A new C. P. T. ground school is being started immediately and there are still openings for several young men between the ages of 19 and 26. Anyone interested may contact the local airport, it was stated today.

AID GOVERNMENT

Johnstown, Pa., July 23 (AP)—Kenneth Vaughan, president of the Radio Servicemen of America, announced today the 10,000 members of his organization are actively joining in the government's movement to salvage scrap aluminum and nickel. He said the servicemen would ask customers to donate aluminum and also would gather old vacuum tubs which contain an ounce or two of nickel each.

Florida is rated second to Texas as a cattle producing state.

Irvine

Irvine, July 21—The ladies of the Methodist church will hold an ice cream social on Mrs. Olson's lawn on Thursday evening, July 24, for the benefit of the church.

The John Dailey family and the Harry Archbold family attended the Wilcox reunion at Island Park, Youngsville, Sunday, the 20th.

Floyd Walters, of Buffalo, visited here over the weekend and he and his brother, Frank, motored to Wellsville, N. Y., to the night ball game last evening.

CHILD INJURED AT SHEFFIELD

Sheffield, July 23—James Snyder, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder, Mill street, suffered a multiple fracture of the left wrist early Monday evening when a limb broke beneath him and he fell out of a tree in which he and some companions were playing in a field not far from the youth's home. The injured member was X-rayed and the fractured bones were set Tuesday morning at the Kane Community Hospital.

PUBLIC INVITED

The general public of the community is cordially invited to attend the social and reception which the local Democratic organization is giving Thursday evening of this week in honor of Attorney E. H. Beshlin, of Warren, prominent candidate for the county judgeship.

The committee in charge of the event, which will be held in the Democratic Club, 15 Center street, beginning at 8 p. m., has announced that music for the occasion will be provided by Roger Webster, baritone; Miss Mary Pat O'Connor, violinist, and a vocal trio that includes Misses Louise Anundson and Marjorie Carlson, and Mrs. Jeanne Bramer Harampoulis.

PERSONALS

George Miller, of Springfield, O., is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, having been called by the illness of his father, who is recovering from a heart attack suffered a few days ago.

Joseph Epstein is spending the week in New York City, where he is visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yoos and son, Fred, and Mrs. Bertha Kinche, of Philadelphia, were visitors recently at the F. B. Sprague home. Mr. Yoos attended the 28th Division convention held last week in Bradford. He is a member of the old World War outfit. The ladies are sisters of Mrs. Sprague.
